Consent Agenda Item (Action Item): Consider/Approve authorizing the Rachel's Challenge program to be implemented in elementary and middle schools with an emphasis on grade levels 6th - 8th in the 2019 – 2020 school year

Background: Each day 160,000 students don't go to school for fear of being bullied, teased, or harassed. Rachel's Challenge is making a world-wide impact by the story of the tragic death of Rachel Scott at Columbine High School into a mission for change. Rachel's Challenge helps students understand the power of appreciating others and realize that they can start a chain reaction of kindness and compassion to positively change the culture in their school. Floyd County schools will officially "kick off" Rachel's Challenge the week of September 13th - 20th in grade levels PK -8th. An emphasis will be placed on the middle school student population and include a school wide assembly, student training, and an evening community event.

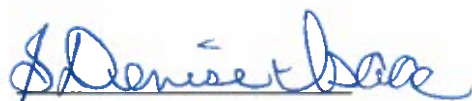

A choice of two sessions for administrators and staff of these schools will be offered at the PD Academy. Implementation of Rachel's Challenge will assist Floyd County schools in meeting the requirements of KY Senate Bill (1) for Social and Emotional Learning, SEL and help build the framework for Trauma Informed Care, (TIC) teams per school and at the district level. A grant from KVEC assisted in bringing Rachel's Challenge to the district. Floyd County is appreciative to have this opportunity for all stakeholders.

Applicable State or Regulations: BOE Policy 01.11, 04.32; KRS 45A.345-460

Budget/Financial Issues: None – KVEC Grant supplemental award money will be used.

Recommended Action: Approve Superintendent or designee to electronically sign the attached agreement per Rachel's Challenge to release secured KVEC supplemental award money

10 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and

2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and

3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and

4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-F (fellowship)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
