- V. The purpose of lesson planning is to assist teachers in three major areas:
 1. Structure/Content Match: Teachers have a wide range of objectives that need to be taught. Therefore, it is imperative that teachers have a wide range of sound instructional practices from which to choose. Kagan structures serve as tools that allow teachers to engineer various types of learning experiences for students. The list of structures is long; there are many tools from which to choose. Different structures are better suited for reaching different learning objectives. Selecting the appropriate structures for the desired outcome is part of the art of teaching with structures. Lesson planning sessions with a certified Kagan trainer or coach will assist teachers in analyzing content and choosing structures that maximize the learning objective. (Note: description taken from info on page 6.10 and 6.11 in CL book)
 2. Lesson Plan/Teacher Manual Connection: Almost any lesson can be improved by replacing an element of the lesson with a Cooperative Learning structure. Teachers can keep their current lesson plans or teacher manual directions and learn how to insert structures to engage students throughout the lesson. This involves looking for key words, identifying group activities, and analyzing lesson components to determine the best place(s) to insert structures.
 3. Seven Keys: Teachers often have additional questions about team formation, classbuilding, teambuilding, management, and social skills. Lesson planning sessions give teachers the opportunity to ask questions and gather suggestions and ideas for strengthening the key areas.
- VI. Overpayments may be issued a credit coupon that can be used for prior, current, or future professional development, and/or product at the customers direction. Refunds by check will be made at customer's request.
- VII. If events beyond the reasonable control of the parties (including, but not limited to, acts of God, declared war, governmental authority, terrorist attacks in or near the workshop site, or curtailment of transportation to or from the workshop site) make it illegal, impossible, or unreasonable for the trainer to perform as originally contracted under this Agreement, Kagan may terminate this Agreement, without liability. In the very extraordinary instance that an event must be cancelled by Kagan, Kagan agrees to reschedule the event, but will assume no financial responsibility to Goodridge Elementary School for the results of the cancellation.
