Part-Time Students

The Board will consider a shortened school day only for students authorized to attend part-time in accordance with this policy, preschool and kindergarten students, and for students with an individual education plan or 504 plan that supports a shortened day.

PART-TIME STATUS

Students may be approved for enrollment on a part-time basis for the following reasons:

1. Cases of extreme hardship as recommended by the Principal and approved by the Superintendent;
2. Attendance at college, trade or technical schools, with enrollment being verified in writing by officials of the institution; and/or
3. Enrollment as a fifth-year student.

Written requests to attend part-time shall be submitted to the Principal by parents of all students under age eighteen (18). Emancipated and/or married students shall submit written requests directly to the Principal for approval.
