January 2020 Board Report

Daycare Report

- Final Balance Report- continue to be in a positive and enrollment is 16 kids.

Early Childhood Learning

- Book-a-week continues and we have distributed books to our area daycare centers.
- Winter issue of Seedlings was mailed and perceived well by the community.
- Great turn out for Snack with My Pack parent engagement activity with our preschoolers
- Instillation of a sensory pathway at LES will occur and is possible through Preschool Partnership Grant funds.
- Check out the preschool screen at the back of the playground

Special Education/504

- Data from Holy Hill demonstrated positive gains with the day treatment program. School referrals for all students have decreased, grades have improved for the majority of students, and the students view the severity of their problems has decreased while their ability to function has increased.
- Two general education and two special education teachers from DHS will attend a co-teaching conference in Indianapolis, IN on January 30-31 to focus on inclusion and supports in the general education setting for our students with special needs.
