2. BUDGET REPORT

- a. SBDM Budget Report(s) Review

3. NEW BUSINESS

- a. Wellness Policy – review and make revisions

Our wellness policy was revised last year. Due to CoVid, it is suggested schools have one. It will allow for an extra “break” in the school day for students to get movement due to strenuous circumstances this year.

Ivy first, Amanda T. second for keeping the wellness policy we already have in place with no revisions.

- b. Title I Plan – Review with council

Title I funds have been used for: i-Ready curriculum with toolbox including reading, writing and math, ½ Stem Teacher using keyboarding program, , 2 FTE instructional assistants, 2 interventionists (math and reading), AmeriCorps Tutor (reading), PlanBook

- c. COVID-19 Hands Policy 2020-2021 702 KAR 7:140 Emergency Regulation

Time allowed (up to 30 minutes per day) for this school year only, to attend to CoVid-related circumstances (i.e. washing hands, sanitizing, etc.)

Lindsay first, Danielle second for adoption of the policy.

- d. Elect KASC Delegate – council chooses a delegate to participate in a meeting to vote on:

- Directions for our governing board
- Officers for the Board of Directors
- The Legislative Agenda for the next session

The delegate will vote in the online election for directions of the week of September 9-16 and to attend a BRIEF virtual meeting of September 17 at 6:30 PM. Reminders will be sent to the delegate.

Ivy nominated Erin to be the elected representative. Erin accepted the nomination.

e. New start and end time 7:55-3:15

Danielle first, Ivy second

f. Will need to fill a parent vacancy on our SBDM.

Due to the resignation of one of our parents, we will need to elect a new parent to the council. It will be posted after today's meeting.

4. OLD BUSINESS

a. FRC AmeriCorp Position – We have hired Clara Tuttle for this position. She will begin in September.

5. ADJOURNMENT

Amanda T. first, Lindsay second
