and other Members of Management
Board of Education of Jefferson County, Kentucky

We are pleased to present this report related to our audit engagements for the Board of Education of Jefferson County, Kentucky (the District) as of and for the year ended June 30, 2020. This report summarizes certain matters required by professional standards to be communicated to you in your oversight responsibility for the District's financial reporting process, as well as other matters that we believe may be of interest to you. Our audit engagements do not relieve management or those charged with governance of their responsibilities.

This information is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Education, members of the Audit & Risk Management Advisory Committee, and members of management and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specific parties.

It will be our pleasure to respond to any questions you have regarding this report. We appreciate the opportunity to be of service to the District. We received excellent cooperation and assistance from management and staff with respect to access to records, supporting documentation and responses to inquiries. No limitations were imposed on our audit procedures or the extent of our audit.

AREA	COMMENTS
Management Judgments And Accounting Estimates The preparation of the financial statements requires the use of accounting estimates. The process used by management encompasses their knowledge and experience about past and current events, and certain assumptions about future events. You may wish to monitor throughout the year the process used to determine and record these accounting estimates.	The most notable estimates affecting the financial statements are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Depreciation and useful lives of capital assets• Sick leave accrual• Workers compensation• Pension and OPEB related estimates We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop these estimates in determining that they are reasonable in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.
Financial Statements Disclosures The disclosures are neutral, consistent and clear. Certain disclosures are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the users of the financial statements.	The most sensitive disclosures affecting the financial statements are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Note B – Cash, Cash Equivalents, and Investments• Note E – Long-Term Liabilities• Note F – Retirement Plans• Note H – Postemployment Benefits• Note O – Changes to Certain Beginning Balances
Significant Difficulties Encountered In Performing The Audit	We encountered no difficulties in dealing with management when performing the audit.

Auditor Communications

AREA	COMMENTS
Corrected And Uncorrected Misstatements Professional standards require us to accumulate all factual, judgmental and projected misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management, and request their correction.	There were no audit adjustments or uncorrected misstatements noted during the year. There was an adjustment to opening net position of $585,000. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• GASB 65 adjustment: related to bond discounts and premiums, which resulted in a decrease of approximately $16.8 million to beginning net position.• GASB 75 adjustment: related to contributions to the KTRS Medical Insurance plan subsequent to the actuarial valuation date (deferred outflow) , which resulted in an increase of approximately $17.4 million to beginning net position.
Disagreements With Management	We encountered no disagreements with management over the application of significant accounting principles, the basis for management's judgments on any significant matters, the scope of the audit, or significant disclosures to be included in the financial statements.
Management Representations	We will request certain representations from management that will be included in the management representation letter dated November 10, 2020.
Consultations With Other Independent Accountants	We are not aware of any consultations management had with other accountants about accounting or auditing matters.
