For Purchasing Specialists: Please note the service LessonPix provides is a library of "hand-drawn" images which are applied to our own templates to make teaching materials. Students do not access LessonPix (only staff do), student information is not entered into LessonPix, and the only staff data collected is first name, last name, and email address of staff to generate a User ID. Therefore, PII risks are not relevant and data security agreements are generally waived. We hope this helps.
