

AC Huffman Criminal Justice Scholarship

Sponsored by
Huffman's Cleaning Service & Floor Care LLC

AC Huffman was a police officer and the Police Chief for the Lancaster' Police Department for more than 20 years. Chief Huffman showed a servant's heart his entire adult life, as he served in the US military as an Military Police (MP) Officer at the end of World War II. Chief Huffman demonstrated qualities each day that he believed every officer should have and be committed to displaying. Those qualities included; courage, strength, dedication to service and duty, calm demeanor, and an instinct to protect.

The AC Huffman Criminal Justice Scholarship fund will award one $1000 recurring scholarship to a graduate of Garrard County High School planning to enroll in a college and study Criminal Justice.

If a scholarship recipient decides not to attend a college or university in the year immediately following graduation, or is convicted of any misdemeanor and/or felony offense that is open to the public domain (other than minor traffic offenses), an alternate candidate shall receive the AC Huffman Criminal Justice Scholarship. The AC Huffman Criminal Justice Scholarship Committee reserves the right not to award a scholarship to any applicant if it is determined that a qualified candidate does not exist.

The selection process shall be fair, impartial and consistent. All applicants will receive a letter concluding the selection process.
