III. Information regarding increasing in-person instruction

Superintendent Teresa Morgan shared with the board information for returning to school for five-day-a-week in-person instruction. We will follow the updated guidance of KDE. Parents will be asked to continue their daily screening of their child(ren) before school. Temperature checks will be administered to all who enter our buildings, and masks are required to be worn correctly and consistently except while eating. Mask breaks will be scheduled. Social distancing will continue to the the greatest extent possible under KDE guidance. Daily cleaning regiments will continue.

Timeline

March 15 - Deadline for parents of elementary and middle school students to let their child's school know if they are making the change from OLA to in-person or from in-person to OLA.

March 17 - Non-Traditional Instruction Day (NTI) for all grade levels. NO IN-PERSON INSTRUCTION. No Google Meets on this day. This day will be used by staff to prepare classrooms, cafeterias, and hallways as well as allow transportation to maneuver routes and child nutrition to prepare for larger lunch sizes.

March 19 - Deadline for parents of high school students to let their child's school know if they are making the change from OLA to in-person or from in-person to OLA.

March 22 - Elementary and middle school students return to five-day-a-week in-person instruction. This is the beginning of the last grading period for middle school students and one-week into the last grading period for elementary school students.

April 12 - High School students return to five-day-a-week in-person instruction.
