The National Geographic curriculum is a language and foundational skills curriculum specifically created for EL students. It develops language, survival vocabulary and the basic building blocks of literacy using multicultural literature and informational texts. The curriculum will be used to support our growing EL population and used both in EL Summer School, and EL services. These materials had to be purchased due to needing to have the materials, books in time for the EL Summer Learning Program 6/7/21 - 7/2/21 and Finance's deadline for PO's by the end of the year.
