4. Accounts:

Some of our Services offer you the opportunity to create a user account to access additional functionality such as making online purchases, or may require you to establish a user account to utilize a Service. This Section, "Accounts," establishes additional terms that apply to such accounts.

You may only create and hold one account for each of the Services, and you may not use anyone else's account. When we request information from you to set up an account, you must provide us with accurate and complete information. You also must update your account when information you have provided to us changes. To update your account information, click on the "Account" link or other applicable account settings on the relevant Services.

You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your user account login names and passwords, and you must not permit use of your account by anyone else. You accept responsibility for all activities that occur under your account, including product purchases made using your account. If you have reason to believe that someone is using your account without your permission, you should contact us immediately. We are not responsible for any loss or damage resulting from unauthorized use of your account.

You authorize us to use the contact information you provide us to communicate with you about your orders and our Services and products. You agree that all agreements, notices, disclosures and other communications that we provide to you electronically, through posting or email, satisfy any legal requirement that such communications be in writing. You may opt out of receiving marketing e-mails from us by following the opt-out instructions provided to you in those e-mails.

We provide most of our products and services (e.g., Destiny, Aspen, IB Store, Follett Access, Axis 360) to end-users of an organization as a 'data processor' on behalf of our clients (i.e., colleges and universities, school districts, schools, libraries, and businesses). A data controller is a person, company, or other body that determines the purpose and means of personal data processing (this can be determined alone, or jointly with another person/company/body). It also means that your organization's privacy statement governs the use of your personal information (instead of ours). Please read your organization's privacy statement. Your organization determines what information we collect through our products, services and how it is used. We process your information according to your organization's instructions and the terms of our contracts with your organization.

We reserve the right to terminate your access to your account at any time, without notice, in our sole discretion for any or no reason, including but not limited to inactivity or misuse. If access to your account is terminated, you may lose access to any information stored in connection with your account, and any promotional account credits and any other forms of value that may be associated with your account. Upon termination, these Terms shall continue to apply to any other use of the Services that you are permitted to make.

You may disable your account at any time by contacting a customer service representative of the applicable Service. Your account will only be disabled after you have returned all books that have been rented to you (if any) and all transactions have been processed including payment of assessed penalties or the cashing of any refund check.

5. Mobile Services:

Some of the Services may have features of the Services targeted to users of wireless devices ("Mobile Features"), including an SMS and/or MMS messaging program ("Messaging Program"). Your wireless provider may charge for use of Mobile Features, including fees for receipt of text messages or data transmission. In order to receive Mobile Features, your wireless provider may require you to subscribe to additional services, which may require additional fees. These fees are not charged by us, and you should contact your wireless provider before you sign up for Mobile Features to determine what fees, if any, will be charged.

By signing up for a Messaging Program, you agree to receive up to five (5) SMS and/or MMS messages per week. We may use autodialer or non-autodialer technology to send the text messages described above to the mobile phone number you use to opt in. Consenting to receive SMS and/or MMS messages is not a condition of purchase. Message and data rates may apply. Depending on your text plan you may be charged by your carrier. The service is a recurring message program.

To stop receiving messages, reply STOP to any message received. Once your telephone number is removed from our system, you will receive a final confirmation message and no further messages will be sent to your cell phone or mobile device.

By signing up for a Mobile Service, you agree that we may communicate with you (including, without limitation, by way of third-party messaging services) via SMS and/or MMS messaging to your mobile phone or device, and that certain information about your usage of the Mobile Service may be communicated to us. In the event you change or deactivate your mobile phone number, you agree to promptly update your account information to ensure that our messages intended for you are not sent to the person who acquires your old number. By signing up for a Mobile Service, including any Messaging Program, you agree to all of the other Terms laid out herein, including, but not limited to, Section 13 (Arbitration/Choice of Law) and Section 14 (Disclaimer/Limitation of Liability). You also agree to be bound by our Privacy Policy.

Carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages.

6. Purchases:

Some of our Services offer you the opportunity to order products. This Section, "Purchases," states additional terms that apply to such orders.

Product Availability. Not all products are available in all styles, sizes, and colors.

Pricing and Availability. When you order a product, the price will be made clear during the order process. All prices are in U.S. Dollars, except where otherwise noted. You agree to pay the price that is stated in your order, as well as any applicable taxes and shipping expenses, where applicable. While we try to provide accurate pricing information on our Services, a price stated on a Service occasionally may be in error. If in processing your order we determine that the correct price is less than the stated price, we will charge you the lower price. If we determine that the correct price is higher than the stated price, we are not obligated to fulfill your order at the stated price. We will attempt to notify you using the contact information provided in connection with your order, and we will give you the choice to cancel your order or pay the correct price.

Course requirements (including updated data from publishers and changes in instructor preferences), pricing and availability are subject to change. We cannot guarantee that all items displayed will be in stock at the time of your order. With respect to items rented through our website, we cannot confirm the price of an item until you place an order.

Product Descriptions. We try to be accurate when we describe and depict products on our Services. However, with regard to clothing, certain measures and other descriptions are only approximate. We also cannot guarantee that images we provide will be displayed properly on your device, or that our product descriptions and images, including depictions of color, texture and proportions, will always be complete, reliable, current and error-free. If you purchase a product from one of our Services that you believe is not as described or depicted, you may return it to the extent provided in the applicable return policy described below.

Taxes. Rentals and purchases through the Services may be subject to taxes in certain states. Depending on your state and the nature of the product or service you receive from us, this may be a rental tax, sales tax and/or use tax. Tax rates are different from state to state. You are responsible for paying all such taxes.

Discounts and Promotions. The specific terms of any discounts or other promotions are stated at the time they are offered. Promotions cannot be combined unless we specifically state otherwise. Eligibility for any promotions is determined at the time of your order.

Clearance Items. Products designated as "clearance" items will not return to higher, prior selling prices, but the same items previously may have been offered at or below the current price. Clearance items may (1) be available in limited quantities and sizes, (2) remain on the Services for only short times, and (3) be unavailable in stores. Clearance items are not returnable or refundable.

Ordering. When you click the "Place Order" button on a Service, you make an offer to buy the relevant products. While we may confirm receipt and processing of orders by email, such confirmation does not constitute our acceptance of your order. We cannot guarantee that all items displayed on your order confirmation will be in stock at the time your order is shipped. We reserve the right to reject or cancel any order, in whole or in part, at any time prior to shipping. If we do, we will attempt to notify you using the contact information provided in connection with your order. You agree not to try to exceed stated quantity limits (except where specifically noted), violate the terms of any specific offer or promotion, or place orders through the Services if we have notified you that you are prohibited from placing orders through the Services.

Payment. We accept only the payment methods indicated on the Services. When you provide payment information, you represent that the information is accurate and that you are authorized to use the payment method provided. If your payment method has expired or is otherwise invalid when we try to charge it, you remain responsible for payment, and for all costs we incur in collecting any unpaid amounts, including, but not limited to, attorney and collections fees.

Shipping to our Retail Customers. Shipping options and applicable charges for our retail customers will be stated during the order process. The U.S. Postal Service delivers to P.O. boxes, but this method may delay your order. Please note that Next Business Day and 2nd Business Day shipping options are not available for delivery to P.O. boxes. For some campus or corporate on-site stores, items ordered online can be shipped to the store for free. Where available, the Delivery Options page will offer the option of "Store Pickup." We will send you emails with updates on your order's status as they become available. Additional charges may apply for shipments to Alaska and Hawaii.

Stated shipping times and delivery estimates are only estimates and are not binding. If a product becomes unavailable between ordering and processing, we will cancel your order and attempt to notify you using the contact information provided in connection with your order. Legal title to products, and the risk of loss or damage to the products is transferred to you when products are provided to the carrier. You will be responsible for filing any claims with the carrier for damaged and/or lost shipments.

Shipping to our Wholesale Customers. Shipping to our institutional wholesale customers shall be subject to the terms disclosed to you at the time of purchase or by the terms mutually agreed upon in writing by you and Follett.

International Shipping. Shipping to addresses outside the U.S. is available on a limited basis and may be subject to additional terms, fees, and restrictions. Such information will be provided during the checkout process. If you have any questions or require additional information about shipping to addresses outside the U.S. please contact us using the information in Section 17 below.

Returns. We hope you are happy with the products you purchase. However, most items we sell may be returned to us under certain circumstances, as explained in the return policy posted on the relevant Services. We reserve the right to refuse to issue a refund or credit, and the right to recover the cost of return delivery from you, if any product you return (1) is not eligible for return, in accordance with the relevant return policy or the terms of any specific offer or promotion, or (2) is found to have suffered damage after delivery to you, including as a result of having been misused by you. We take legal title to returned products only after they arrive and are processed at our designated returns location.

Return terms and policies may vary by Service (including by bookstore or corporate store). Please check the return policy of the Service where you are making a purchase for additional details. Where the Return terms and policies are different for a particular Service or bookstore or corporate store from what is state above in these Terms, those specific Return terms and policies will control.

10. Changes to Services:

We reserve the right to take any of the following actions in our discretion at any time, and without giving you prior notice:

- Change or discontinue the Services, and the products and promotions offered on the Services.
- Limit the availability of products.
- Change the prices of products.

- Restrict or terminate your access to the Services.

We will not be liable to you or any third party for taking any of these actions.

11. Copyright, Trademarks, and other Intellectual Property:

We grant you a limited non-exclusive, non-transferrable license to access and use our Services for your personal, non-commercial use only in accordance with these Terms. Any commercial use; any unauthorized use of a "robot," "spider," "scraper" or other automated means; use in violation of the policy of any school represented on the Services; or use for data collection and/or profit is not allowed.
