2021-2022 Council of School Board Attorneys

Its never too early to think about renewing your membership for the 2021-2022 year.

With your yearly membership you will receive the following:

Access to both the Summer 2021 and Winter 2022 CSBA Meetings

That is over 10 hours of CLE credit available for members of the Kentucky Bar on up to date school law topics presented by fellow members and experts. We "traditionally" offer one hour of ethics CLE programming at the Winter Meeting.

Quarterly Council Updates

These quarterly updates provide summaries of key state and federal school law appellate opinions. The update focuses on decisions of interest to Kentucky practitioners.

Access to National Council of Board Attorneys

We handle the renewal for you. Membership in this organization gives you access to discussions, a library, blogs, webinar trainings, and other current awareness resources. For more information on COSA please go to <https://www.nsba.org/services/council-school-attorneys-cosa>

Current Awareness Updates

Periodic current awareness updates via e-mail on regulatory, legislative and case law developments. These informal updates have included items such as a reminder on the required oaths of office, discussion of recent OMD decisions interpreting the so-called "personnel exception", alerts on recent important state law qualified immunity decision, etc.

If you have any questions about renewal for the 2021-2022 Year
