Indexes are calculated using the base salary daily rate.

Example: Base salary is $50,000 divide that by 185 base days to get daily rate ($270.27/day), take the daily rate and multiply by index percentage, $270.27 x 14% = $37.84, take the index and multiply by the total number of contract days, including extended days, $37.84 x 235 = $8,892.40

*Current Director of Maintenance on a 156 day contract.
