Presentation Requirements

Speaker must depart by 2:30 p.m.

- Presentation shall be held in the auditorium or the cafeteria (libraries and classrooms are too small for an effective presentation.)
- Client responsible for any additional expenses incurred due to client's request to reschedule an event.
- Equipment required: One lapel microphone, sound system that can plug into his computer, LCD projector and screen for PowerPoint presentation.
- The speaker requires any lunch period to be unencumbered, as he needs this time to return phone calls and answer emails. No meetings; either formal or informal can be held during this time.
- The client is responsible for reproducing the handout for all participants in the workshop. The handout will be emailed ahead of time.

Publishing Rights

- Taping: Video and audio recordings are prohibited.
- Written permission from Multicultural America, Inc. is required to duplicate or publish any written materials provided by the speaker.

Educational Resources

Educational resources are available for purchase at the event. This will not interfere with the presentation. If this is agreeable, please indicate here: Yes _____ No _____. If yes, we will need three long tables for the large posters. My staff will manage this process. No other assistance is required. If this section is not completed, we will assume it is permissible to offer these materials.

Fee & Payment

The fee for this event is $8,800.00. This fee includes airfare, hotel, mileage, meals, and car rental.

Unless otherwise agreed upon, a check for the total payment is due immediately following the completion of the presentation.

Accepted and Approved: This agreement must be signed and returned no later than 5 business days from the above date to avoid cancellation.

	7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (Interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
 - Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
 - Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
 - Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
 - Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
 - Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
 - Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
 - Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
- Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What Is backup withholding, later.
