

Official Program 2010 ARMY JROTC SERVICE CHAMPIONSHIP

Camp Perry, Ohio; 18-20 February 2010

CONGRATULATIONS! Congratulations to all Army JROTC unit teams and individual cadets that qualified for the 2010 Army JROTC Service Championship. This competition will give JROTC units and individuals who earned the right to represent their Brigades an opportunity to meet the challenges of a major shoulder-to-shoulder competition. The Army JROTC Championship is also the qualifying competition for the 2010 National JROTC Championship. All four JROTC Service Championships will take place at Camp Perry, Ohio on consecutive weekends in February. Individual and team Army JROTC Championship awards will be presented and the top unit teams and at-large individuals will qualify for the National JROTC Championship at the CMP Marksmanship Center-South in Anniston, Alabama on 25-28 March 2010. This official program governs the conduct of the Championship and provides information so JROTC units that qualified teams or individuals can plan their participation.

TEAM AND INDIVIDUAL ENTRY

CONFIRMATION. Because of the short time period between when the Army JROTC postal scores became final on 18Dec09 and the start of the Service Championship, it is critically important that every JROTC unit receiving an invitation to participate inform CMP as soon as possible as to your intention to participate. Instructors of qualifying unit teams or individuals are requested to complete a Team/Individual Entry Confirmation Form and return it to the CMP not later than Thursday, 14Jan10. Please use the form to notify the CMP that your unit or individual cadet will or will not participate in the Service Championship.

The 2010 Army JROTC Air Rifle Championship will take place at the Camp Perry, Ohio, Marksmanship Center that has an 80-firing-point range fully equipped with electronic targets.

TRAVEL AND ACCOMMODATION ARRANGEMENTS. Qualifying teams and individuals must make their own travel arrangements to Camp Perry, Ohio. If you drive, Camp Perry is approximately five miles west of Port Clinton, Ohio on State Highway #2. To book flights, you can fly to either Cleveland, Ohio or Detroit, Michigan. Both locations are about the same driving time to Port Clinton, OH. The CMP will provide barracks with 20-person squad bays at no cost for Championship participants who are interested in staying in military barracks. CMP staff will not be responsible for the supervision of cadets in the barracks; this will be the responsibility of their coach or chaperone. You must bring your own sheets, pillow, sleeping bag, towels, and toiletries and lock if you plan to secure personal items in a locker in the barracks. Two local hotels have agreed to provide special low rates for participating teams that wish to stay off post.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT. Free barracks housing and lunch on Friday and Saturday will be provided by the CMP. The Army Cadet Command has indicated that they will not be able to provide any support for travel and hotel expenses for the Army JROTC Service Championship. The Cadet Command suggests that in some cases limited financial support may be available from your Brigade.

REGISTRATION AND LIABILITY FORMS. All coaches/instructors and chaperones must complete a CMP Liability Release Form. This form is included with this program. It may be completed, notarized and returned to the CMP at the time of check-in at Camp Perry. This form can also be completed and notarized at Camp Perry—a notary will be on duty during check-in.

PARENTAL PERMISSION FORMS. All participating cadets must submit or bring a signed Parental Permission Form at the time of check-in. A copy of this form is also included with this form.

ARMY JROTC SERVICE CHAMPIONSHIP. The following rules govern the conduct of the Army JROTC Service Championship.

- Rules. The competitions will be three-position air rifle events fired at a distance of 10-meters. 2008-2010 7th (V2) Edition National Standard Three-Position Air Rifle Rules will govern. Copies of the rules may be requested from the Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP, email: competitions@odcmp.com) or rulebooks may be downloaded from the CMP web site at <http://www.odcmp.com/3P/Rules.pdf>.
- Qualifying Teams and Individual Cadets. Qualifying Army JROTC unit teams and at-large individual cadets (sporter/precision who are not on qualifying teams) in the sporter and precision air rifle classes were selected in each Army JROTC Brigade based on scores fired in the Army JROTC Air Rifle Postal Competition in accordance with qualifying criteria published in the Official Program for the 2009-2010 Army JROTC Air Rifle Postal Competition. A maximum of 225 qualifying slots may be filled.
- Army JROTC Team Championships, Sporter and Precision Classes. Each qualifying team may bring up to five cadets to the competition. If a unit team brings five cadets, they must designate the four team members and one alternate at the time of check-in at Camp Perry. Subsequent substitutions are possible only in the case of illness or an emergency. Members of qualifying unit four-person teams will fire one three-position 3X20 course of fire on Friday, 19 February, and one three-position 3X20 course of fire on Saturday, 20 February. The team's total score for the two 3X20 courses will determine team rankings.
- Army JROTC Individual Championships, Sporter and Precision Classes. The four members of each unit team, plus all at-large individual qualifiers, and all alternates will compete for individual awards. Including the alternates in the individual standings is a new change for 2010 that we believe will help to elevate the level of the match and will allow alternates that shoot high scores a chance to advance to the National Championship as well. After the second 3X20 course of fire on 20 February, the top eight individuals in the precision and sporter classes will compete in a 10-shot final. Final individual rankings for these cadets will be based on the total of their two 3X20 scores plus the final scores fired by the top eight individuals.
- Alternate Individual Championships, Sporter and Precision Classes. Alternates will be permitted to fire as Individuals and therefore compete for the Individual Championship.

Alternates will be squadded to fire with their teams. Final individual rankings will be based on the total of their two 3X20 scores.

- Competition Sanction. The National Three-Position Air Rifle Council has sanctioned the 2010 Army JROTC Championship. Scores fired can be recognized as national records.
- EIC Credit Points. The National Three-Position Air Rifle Council recognizes the Army JROTC Service Championships as part of the JROTC National Championship program. The top 25% of all Non-Distinguished competitors in the overall individual rankings will receive EIC credit points (counts towards Junior Distinguished status) in accordance with National Council regulations (pages 51-53 in the National Standard Rules).
- Qualifying for JROTC National Championship. The top four sporter and the top four precision unit teams in the Army JROTC Championship, plus the top six at-large individual cadets in the sporter and precision classes, will represent the Army JROTC at the CMP Marksmanship Center-South in Anniston, Alabama on 25-28 March 2010.

CHAMPIONSHIP SCHEDULE. The Army JROTC Championship schedule posted here is based on the assumption that there will be a maximum of 225 competitors in the competition. If there are 225 or fewer competitors, three relays with a maximum of 75 competitors will be squadded and the schedule posted here will be followed. If the total number of competitors exceeds 225, it will be necessary to change the schedule to provide for four relays of firing on Friday and Saturday. Any further schedule changes will be announced as soon as they are made, but not later than the Coaches Meeting on Thursday, 18 February.
