SUPERINTENDENT'S RECOMMENDATION: ☒ Recommended ☐ Not Recommended

Parents & Guardians,

Please note that all student travel for extracurricular and co-curricular activities is subject to change based on the ongoing and evolving circumstances of COVID-19 in Woodford County, Kentucky at large, and the intended location to which students are traveling. Trips could be shortened, postponed, canceled, or altered in some other way, depending on the situation. Although we will work with our travel partners, with the hope that families could be reimbursed entirely should a trip be significantly changed, we must inform you that a total reimbursement is not always guaranteed. We apologize for this inconvenience.

If you have any questions, please contact your student's school for more information.

Sincerely,

WOODFORD COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION

General Sessions & Keynote Speakers

CEC 2022 will feature 3 general sessions and 2 dynamic keynote speakers.

Opening General Session

Sunday, January 18, 5-6:30 pm

A Fireside Chat with Judy Heumann

Judith (Judy) Heumann is a lifelong advocate and an internationally recognized leader in the disability rights community. Her memoir, authored with Kristen Joiner, Being Heumann: An Unrepentant Memoir of a Disability Rights Activist, was published by Beacon Press and audio recorded by Ali Stroker, who is the first wheelchair actor to perform on Broadway. Judy is featured in "Crip Camp: A Disability Revolution," a 2020 American award winning documentary film, directed by James LeBrecht and Nicole Newnham, produced by the Obama Higher Ground Production and is available on Netflix. She also produces a podcast called The Heumann Perspective, which features a variety of members from the disability community.

In 1983, Judy co-founded the World Institute on Disability (WID) with Ed Roberts and Joan Leon, as one of the first global disability rights organizations founded and continually led by people with disabilities that works to fully integrate people with disabilities into the communities around them via research, policy, and consulting efforts.

From 1993 to 2001, Judy served in the Clinton Administration as the Assistant Secretary for the Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services in the Department of Education. During his presidency, President Obama appointed Judy as the first Special Advisor for International Disability Rights at the U.S. Department of State, where she served from 2010-2017.

She has been instrumental in the development and implementation of legislation, such as Section 504, the Individuals with Education Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Rehabilitation Act, and the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities which have been advancing the inclusion of disabled people in the US and around the world and fighting to end discrimination against all those with disabilities.

Second General Session

Monday, January 17, 2:30-3:45 pm

Reclaim Social-Emotional Learning: A Vision Towards Equitable and Holistically Safe Schools with Dr. Cierra Kaler-Jones

Dr. Cierra Kaler-Jones, Ph.D. is a social justice educator, scholar, and artist based in Washington, DC. As a community-based researcher, Dr. Kaler-Jones's research broadly focuses on how to create and sustain educational spaces rooted in joy and love, while refuting control and management tactics in schools that deny young people opportunities for creativity and critical consciousness-building. Her heart's work includes running a program which uses art and education to fuel social change through the co-creation of healing-centered spaces for and with Black girls and TGNC (transgender, non-conforming) young people.

Over the past ten years, Cierra has learned alongside preschoolers, K-12 students, college students, and adults. In 2015, she served as a fellow with the White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for African Americans. In her current role, Cierra is the Director of Storytelling for Communities for Just Schools Fund, a donor collaborative that resources education justice organizing across the country.

Dr. Kaler-Jones's writing is featured in online outlets and can also be found in peer-reviewed journals like the Middle School Journal and books including Strong Black Girls: Reclaiming Schools in Their Own Image and Black Girl Civics: Expanding and Navigating the Boundaries of Civic Engagement.

In 2015, she created and implemented a residence life program at The George Washington University, called the Speak Your Truth series, which gave hundreds of students a space to discuss social justice issues through monthly events grounded in a storytelling for social justice framework. She took her love of storytelling in all its forms and founded Unlock Your Story, an organization that offers coaching, consulting, and community aimed at helping people tap into the stories that they are bravely meant to share with the world.

When Cierra's not conducting research, writing, dancing, or leading workshops, she loves to read, deepen her yoga practice, and spend time in nature.

Yes I Can Awards

Tuesday, January 18, 2:30-3:30 pm

Each year at the CEC Convention & Expo, the Yes I Can Awards recognize 12 outstanding students with exceptionalities in six categories: Academics, Arts, School & Community Activities, Self-Advocacy, Technology, and Transition. Join us as CEC leaders interview this year's recipients and celebrate their incredible achievements.

Nominations for the 2022 Yes I Can Awards are open!

Do you know a student who deserves to be considered for a Yes I Can Award? The selection committee would love to learn more about them!

DEADLINE: September 8, 2021. Get those nominations in before the end of this school year to make sure you don't miss the deadline!

Preconference Workshops

Preconference Workshops

Arrive early and attend a preconference workshop on Friday, April 1. All preconference workshops are ticketed events. They are open to all conference registrants, and tickets must be purchased in advance. The capacity limit is 120—Register early to secure your spot.

Full Day Workshops | 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Preconference #1: Leading for the Future: Connecting Future Thinking to Change in the Present

We all make assumptions about what the future will be like. Often without realizing it, we assume it will unfold in a predictable and linear way. By doing that, we limit our creative and innovative leadership capacity. Futures thinking enables us to examine our assumptions about the future and better understand how the changes that are happening today could affect our communities years from now. Join us to learn to use futures thinking tools, a thought network framework for relationship building, and policy advocacy tools to pursue your vision for the future of education.

CUBE/NATCON: $290 | REGULAR: $345

Preconference #2: Strategic Talent Leadership: The Silver Bullet of School Improvement Strategies

Districts allocate 83% of their budget towards personnel. Teachers and principals have the largest impact on academic outcomes compared to ALL other factors, driving 58% of the variance in student achievement. Effective leaders understand that sustainable school improvement can ONLY occur when a strong talent leadership strategy is in place. Participants will receive interactive training and a resource book containing the tools to: (1) assess current talent leadership practices, (2) create a talent leadership action plan, and (3) track progress towards improved student outcomes. Book included.

CUBE/NATCON: $310 | REGULAR: $355

Morning Workshops | 9 a.m. – Noon

Preconference #4: Becoming More Engaged & Inclusive Educational Leaders: Strategies for Supporting Our LGBTQ Students

Given the importance and impact that diversity and equity issues play in the lives of students, it is imperative that school boards are prepared to meet the needs of diverse learners, such as LGBTQ students. There are key considerations for effectively supporting LGBTQ students that educators must be aware of. This preconference workshop features a highly customizable and interactive diversity and equity training that helps educators and school board members develop the competency necessary to support LGBTQ students.

Preconference #5: Redefining Student Success

There is no topic currently more relevant to school districts and their school boards than rethinking the purposes and outcomes of K-12 education. The COVID-19 pandemic laid bare the frailties of the current system when it is based primarily on memorization and compliance and when access to technology and other resources is not equitable. In the post-COVID world, how do you help your district assemble and implement a coherent new set of outcomes for your 21st-century students that reflects your community values? This interactive workshop will help you take on this important challenge. Book included.

CUBE/NATCON: $220 | REGULAR: $245

Preconference #6: If You Don't Know Where You're Going, How Do You Know if You Got There?

If you don't know where you're going, how do you know if you're on the right path or if you've arrived?

Learn how the Association of Alaska School Boards helps districts develop a strategic plan, set a vision and mission for the district, examine data, and monitor progress to ensure time and resources are focused on student achievement and moving the district forward. Attendees will identify ways they can apply lessons learned in their own district's strategic planning process.
CUBE/NATCON: $200 | REGULAR: $225

Preconference #7: Understanding the Key Work of School Boards

In today's high-stakes educational environment, the daily pressure on governance leaders is enormous. The more effective the board, the better a school district's students perform. The Key Works of School Boards provides a framework that reflects "best governance practices" that are traceable to high-performing boards and high-performing school districts. This session provides an overview of a relevant and reliable governance guide with strategies and ideas that reflect board best practices. You'll explore the five Key Work action areas. Book included.

Afternoon Workshops | 1:30 – 4:30 p.m.

Preconference #8: Equity in Schools: A Different Lens for School Boards

For 150 years, schools have aimed to ensure a gateway to the American Dream. When discussing equity, people often focus on race, gender, community norms, and poverty. In our calls for equity, there are substantial differences in how we define the term. To work for collective action, we have developed shared metrics and measures to guide you in aligning your policies, procedures, practices, and plans into a new way forward.

CUBE/NATCON: $200 | REGULAR: $225

Pre-Conference #9: Dyslexia: Hiding in Plain Sight

Gain a better understanding of and empathy for those children and adults who struggle with dyslexia. Join in a hands-on simulation to experience the difficulties and frustrations struggling readers face daily in a classroom. Dyslexia is more prevalent than realized, and addressing the needs of students with dyslexia may hold the key to all students' reading success. Discover how educator knowledge in the science of reading will ensure we meet the needs of all students, including those with dyslexia.

CUBE/NATCON: $200 | REGULAR: $225

Preconference #10: Sharing the Magic :Storytelling for Leaders

Great leaders and communicators are also great storytellers! Learn how to tell the story of your school district and community in compelling stories that engage, motivate, influence, and expand your leadership abilities. Learn how to become a powerful storyteller to share the news of the great work going on in your district. You will leave the session with 3-5 powerful stories that you can immediately begin sharing back home.

CUBE/NATCON: $200 | REGULAR: $225

Preconference #11: Improve Achievement for All and Close Gaps

Governance research shows a relationship between boards working well together as a team, high expectations, and accountability with the likelihood that students are improving in learning. Ongoing research in Texas suggests there can be a relationship between school boards engaging and leading their community and the likelihood their district is improving achievement for all students while closing gaps. Gain insights your governance team can apply to do the same.
CUBE/NATCON: $200 | REGULAR: $225

Preconference #12: Reflect. Respond. Recover.: The Three Rs of Moving Forward

Your governance team has recently gone through an unprecedented time that requires your school board to reflect and consider making necessary adjustments and changes. In this workshop, school board members will reflect on challenges related to recent crises experienced (i.e., COVID-19; racial and equity issues; finances), define areas where the challenges were successfully met, and identify areas that need further response. The development of an action plan to help the district recover and continue on the path of success will be discussed.
