

Gallatin County Middle School 30-60-90 Service Plan

2021-2022

District Contact: Tony Jury

School Contact: Holli Hunt

3 Year District Goal(s):

- Gallatin County Schools will have a district-wide curriculum aligned to the Kentucky Academic Standards.
- 100% of students exiting elementary, middle and high school will successfully demonstrate proficiency on the Kentucky Academic Standards.

3 Year School Goal(s):

Gallatin County Middle School will become an institution of distinction that includes High-Quality Aligned Instructional Systems, High Quality Teachers & Teaching, and High Performance Organization and Management.

End of Year District Goals (Written as SMART Goals):

Goal 1: Gallatin County Schools will have a district-wide k-12 adjusted curriculum and pacing guides aligned to KAS for each subject by grade.

End of Year School Goals

Goal 1: Gallatin County Middle School will work towards the creation of High-Quality Aligned Instructional Systems focusing on: Well Designed Curriculum Frameworks and effective Multi Tiered Systems of Support with the purpose of improving academic proficiency, encouraging growth, and enhancing climate and culture.

In 30 days (October 11 - November 19, 2021)

Evidence of success:

- 80% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will have learning intentions/targets posted (97%).
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will understand learning intentions/target expectations.
- 75% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will implement PBIS language and strategies (100%)
- 25% of Gallatin County Middle School Students will achieve a weekly iReady goal in Reading and Math (25 Mins weekly)
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will analyze CASE benchmark data (tested areas)
- 50% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will complete a pacing guide.

Actions:

Actions:	Who is on point? Data	By when?	Date Completed
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professional Learning Communities will discuss expectations of learning intentions/targets (posted). • Teams will discuss ways to improve MTSS protocols and procedures. • Gallatin County Middle School will implement Flexible Friday schedules. 	PLC Meeting Notes October Walkthrough Data PBIS Reward Data	November 19, 2021	Weekly October 31,2021 November 19, 2021

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Walkthrough Data will be collected to provide feedback to teachers regarding learning intentions. PBIS Reward data will be collected to measure use of PBIS initiative CASE Benchmarks will be given to students in tested areas. Continual work with OVEC on MTSS Collection of iReady data Gallatin County Middle School administrators will work with OVEC to plan next steps regarding curriculum framework development. Gallatin County Middle School administrators will work with each other and district administrators to work on next steps regarding curriculum framework development. Gallatin County Middle School will hold mandatory monthly committee/faculty meetings to review/revise protocol/procedures. 	CASE Data Early PBIS impacts OVOP Meeting iReady Data District Instructional Meeting	November 1-6, 2021 October 31 & November 19, 2021 October November 17, 2021
---	--	--

In 60 days (November 20 - January 20, 2022)

Evidence of Success:

- 85% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will post learning intentions/target expectations
- 80% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will refer to learning intentions/targets during instruction.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will complete a pacing guide.
- 50% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will complete lesson plan templates provided by administration.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers in tested areas will analyze CASE benchmark data.
- 50% of Gallatin County Middle School students will achieve a weekly iReady goal in Reading and Math (30 mins each)
- 25% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will be trained on priority standards.

- 10% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will begin placing priority standards into district required pacing guides.
- 85% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will implement PBIS language and strategies.

Actions:	Data	By when?	Date Completed
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Professional Learning Communities will discuss expectations of learning intentions/targets (referred). ● Walkthrough Data will be collected to provide feedback to teachers regarding learning intentions. ● Teachers will upload lesson plans to school templates to include: learning target, standard, task. ● Begin to place learning intentions/targets into pacing guides after review and feedback. ● CASE Benchmark #2 will be given to all students and data will be analyzed to measure growth. . ● iReady Benchmarks #2 will be given to all students and data will be analyzed to measure growth. ● GCMS teachers will be trained on the creation of priority standards. ● PBIS data will be collected to determine effectiveness of program ● PBIS Reward data will be collected to measure use of PBIS initiative ● Gallatin County Middle School administrators will work with OVEC to plan next steps regarding curriculum framework development. ● Continual work with OVEC MTSS 	PLC Minutes Nov Walkthrough Data Dec Walkthrough Data Lesson Plan Pacing Guide CASE Data iReady BM2 Data Priority Standards PD Early impacts of PBIS PBIS Rewards OVOP November MTSS MTSS Agenda December MTSS	January 20, 2022	Weekly November 30, 2021 December Weekly Weekly PLC January 16 (Jan. Staff Meeting) Reading - Dec. 3, 21 Math - Dec. 10, 21 November 29, 2021 Monthly Monthly Monthly Monthly

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Gallatin County Middle School administrators will work with each other and district administrators to work on next steps regarding curriculum framework development. Gallatin County Middle School will hold mandatory monthly committee/faculty meetings to review/revise protocol/procedures. Collection of iReady Data 	District Instructional Meeting Committee Agenda iReady Data
---	---	--	--

90 Days (January 21-March 3, 2022)*Evidence of success must be added prior to Actions Evidence of Success: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will understand learning intentions/target expectations. 90% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will post learning intentions/target expectations 85% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will refer to learning intentions/targets during instruction. 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will complete a pacing guide. 80% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will complete lesson plan templates provided by administration. 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers in tested areas will analyze CASE benchmark data. 55% of Gallatin County Middle School students will achieve a weekly iReady goal in Reading and Math (35 mins each). 50% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will be trained on priority standards. 85% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will implement PBIS language and strategies 15% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will begin placing priority standards into district required pacing guides. 25% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will begin to align learning intentions/targets aligned with Kentucky Academic Standards. 50% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will begin placing learning intentions/targets into pacing guides (current units). 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will analyze samples of success criteria. 25% of Gallatin county Middle School teachers will begin to develop success criteria conducive to KAS and learning intentions/targets.
Actions:	Data	By when?	Date Completed

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Professional Learning Communities will review learning intention/target expectations and look at samples of success criteria. Teachers will analyze learning targets/intentions to begin standard alignment. CASE Benchmark data will be analyzed to guide instruction. Walkthrough data will be analyzed to direct instruction. Collection of iReady Data Priority Standards will be identified in Reading and Math Content Areas. All content area teachers will be trained in Priority Standards. Gallatin County Middle School teachers will continue to place learning targets/intentions in pacing guides. Gallatin County Middle School teachers will continue to use the school lesson plan template to develop lesson plans. PBIS data will be collected to determine effectiveness of programs. PBIS Reward Data will be reviewed to determine teacher usage Gallatin County Middle School administrators will work with OVEC to plan next steps regarding curriculum framework development. Gallatin County Middle School administrators will work with each other and district administrators to work on next steps regarding curriculum framework development. 	PLC Meeting Notes Monthly Faculty Meeting Jan/Feb Walkthrough Data iReady Priority Standards PD Pacing Guide Lesson Plan Early PBIS Data PBIS Rewards OVOP/CF District MTSS District Instructional Meetings	March 3, 2022	Weekly
---	--	--------------------------	---------------

120 Days (March 4 - April 21, 2022) *Evidence of success must be added prior to ActionsEvidence of Success:

- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will understand learning intentions/target expectations.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will post learning intentions/target expectations.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will refer to learning intentions/targets during instruction.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers in tested areas will analyze CASE benchmark data.
- 90% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will complete lesson plan templates provided by administration.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will use the district pacing guide template to create a pacing guide.
- 75% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will be trained on priority standards.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will implement PBIS language and strategies
- 50% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will begin to develop learning intentions/targets aligned with Kentucky Academic Standards.
- 75% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will continue placing learning intentions/targets into pacing guides (current units).
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will analyze samples of success criteria.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will implement PBIS language and strategies
- 50% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will begin to develop success criteria conducive to KAS and learning intentions/targets.
- 100% of tested Gallatin County Middle School teachers will analyze CASE data and use it to guide instruction.
- 60% of Gallatin County Middle School students will achieve a weekly iReady goal in Reading and Math (40 mins each).

Actions:	Who is on point?	By when?	Date Completed
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Professional Learning Communities will look at samples of success criteria.• Teachers will analyze learning targets/intentions to begin standard alignment.• CASE Benchmarks will be given to tested areas.	PLC Meeting Notes CASE Data	April 21, 2022

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● CASE Benchmark data will be analyzed to guide instruction. ● iReady ● Walkthrough data will be analyzed to direct instruction. ● Teachers will begin creating success criteria and adding to pacing guides ● Priority Standards will be identified in Reading and Math Content Areas. ● Priority Standards will begin to be identified in all Core Content Areas ● All content area teachers will be trained in Priority Standards. ● Gallatin County Middle School teachers will continue to place learning targets/intentions in pacing guides. ● Gallatin County Middle School teachers will continue to use the school lesson plan template to develop lesson plans. ● PBIS data will be collected to determine effectiveness of programs. ● PBIS Reward Data will be reviewed to determine teacher usage ● Gallatin County Middle School administrators will work with OVEC to plan next steps regarding curriculum framework development. ● Gallatin County Middle School administrators will work with each other and district administrators to work on next steps regarding curriculum framework development. ● Collection of iReady Data 	Walkthrough Data Pacing Guide Priority Standards PD Lesson Plan Early impacts of PBIS PBIS Rewards OVOP November MTSS MTSS Agenda District Instructional Meeting iReady
---	---	--	--

150 Days (April 22 - May 27, 2022) *Evidence of success must be added prior to Actions Evidence of Success: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will understand learning intentions/target expectations. ● 100% of Gallatin county Middle School teachers will post learning intentions/target expectations. ● 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will refer to learning intentions/targets during instruction.

- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers in tested areas will analyze CASE benchmark data.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will complete lesson plan templates provided by administration.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will use the district pacing guide template to create a pacing guide.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will be trained on priority standards.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will implement PBIS language and strategies
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will begin to develop learning intentions/targets aligned with Kentucky Academic Standards.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will continue placing learning intentions/targets into pacing guides (current units).
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will analyze samples of success criteria.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will implement PBIS language and strategies
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will begin to develop success criteria conducive to KAS and learning intentions/targets.
- 100% of tested Gallatin County Middle School teachers will analyze CASE data and use it to guide instruction.
- 60% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will begin to develop success criteria conducive to KAS standards and learning intentions/targets.
- 25% of teachers will begin implementing success criteria within their classrooms.
- 25% of teachers will begin to add success criteria to their pacing guides.
- 75% of Gallatin County Middle School students will achieve a weekly iReady goal in Reading and Math (45 min each).

150 days actions:	Who is on point?	By when?	Date Completed
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Professional Learning Communities will look at samples of success criteria. ● CASE Benchmarks will be given to tested areas. ● CASE Benchmark data will be analyzed to guide instruction. ● Walkthrough data will be analyzed to direct instruction. ● Teachers will analyze learning targets/intentions to begin standard alignment. ● Priority Standards will be identified in Reading and Math Content Areas. ● Priority Standards will begin to be identified in all Core Content Areas ● All content area teachers will be trained in Priority Standards. ● Gallatin County Middle School teachers will continue to place learning targets/intentions in pacing guides. 	PLC Meeting Notes CASE Data Walkthrough Data Pacing Guide Priority Standards PD	May 27,2022

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Gallatin County Middle School teachers will continue to use the school lesson plan template to develop lesson plans. ● PBIS data will be collected to determine effectiveness of programs. ● Gallatin County Middle School administrators will work with OVEC to plan next steps regarding curriculum framework development. ● Gallatin County Middle School administrators will work with each other and district administrators to work on next steps regarding curriculum framework development. ● Teachers will begin creating success criteria and adding to pacing guides. Teachers will implement success criteria and continue to add to the pacing guide. ● Walkthrough data will be collected for feedback on success criteria ● Collection of iReady Data 	Lesson Plan Early impacts of PBIS PBIS Rewards OVOP November MTSS MTSS Agenda District Instructional Meeting iReady
--	--	--	--

180 Days (Summer) *Evidence of success must be added prior to Actions

Evidence of Success:

- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will understand learning intentions/target expectations.
- 100% of Gallatin county Middle School teachers will post learning intentions/target expectations.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will refer to learning intentions/targets during instruction.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers in tested areas will analyze CASE benchmark data.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will complete lesson plan templates provided by administration.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will use the district pacing guide template to create a pacing guide.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will be trained on priority standards.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will implement PBIS language and strategies
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will begin to develop learning intentions/targets aligned with Kentucky Academic Standards.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will continue placing learning intentions/targets into pacing guides (current units).

- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will analyze samples of success criteria.
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will implement PBIS language and strategies
- 100% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will begin to develop success criteria conducive to KAS and learning intentions/targets.
- 100% of tested Gallatin County Middle School teachers will analyze CASE data and use it to guide instruction.
- 60% of Gallatin County Middle School teachers will begin to develop success criteria conducive to KAS standards and learning intentions/targets.
- 25% of teachers will begin implementing success criteria within their classrooms.
- 25% of teachers will begin to add success criteria to their pacing guides.
- 75% of Gallatin County Middle School students will achieve a weekly iReady goal in Reading and Math (45 min each).
-

180 days actions:	Who is on point?	By when?	Date Completed
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Professional Learning Communities will look at samples of success criteria. ● CASE Benchmarks will be given to tested areas. ● CASE Benchmark data will be analyzed to guide instruction. ● Walkthrough data will be analyzed to direct instruction. ● Teachers will analyze learning targets/intentions to begin standard alignment. ● Priority Standards will be identified in Reading and Math Content Areas. ● Priority Standards will begin to be identified in all Core Content Areas ● All content area teachers will be trained in Priority Standards. ● Gallatin County Middle School teachers will continue to place learning targets/intentions in pacing guides. ● Gallatin County Middle School teachers will continue to use the school lesson plan template to develop lesson plans. ● PBIS data will be collected to determine effectiveness of programs. ● Gallatin County Middle School administrators will work with OVEC to plan next steps regarding curriculum framework development. 	PLC Meeting Notes
	CASE Data
	Walkthrough Data
	Pacing Guide Priority Standards PD
	Lesson Plan Early impacts of PBIS PBIS Rewards

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Gallatin County Middle School administrators will work with each other and district administrators to work on next steps regarding curriculum framework development. ● Teachers will begin creating success criteria and adding to pacing guides Teachers will implement success criteria and continue to add to the pacing guide. ● Walkthrough data will be collected for feedback on success criteria <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Collection of iReady Data 	OVOP November MTSS MTSS Agenda District Instructional Meeting iReady
---	--	--	--

*APPROVED BY GALLATIN COUNTY MIDDLE SCHOOL SBDM ON DECEMBER 13, 2021