

Tammy has a servant's heart. She is always ready to serve our student body, faculty, and parents. She always has a smile on her face and goes above and beyond. She sacrifices her time to make sure our athletes and coaches have access to the things they need. She is always ready to help and never complains about any task she is given. She is the heartbeat of the school, and we are very thankful for her service, smile, and positivity.