Rationale for attending the FBLA National Conference

The Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) is a Career and Technical Education student organization. The high school business teachers serve as their advisers (Emily Whitworth and Rachael Parsons). FBLA emphasizes giving students the opportunity to further their understanding of business concepts, careers in business, and networking opportunities with other youth with the same interests. Most of this is accomplished through regional, state, and national conferences. At these conferences, students network with each other and compete in events. This year, GCHS has 5 state winners eligible to attend and compete at the national level. Three of those 5 wish to attend the national conference in Chicago, Illinois from June 29 - July 2.

Students Who May Attend the FBLA National Conference (June 29 - July 2)

Eligible to go, but not

1. Alex Carroll
2. Abby Keith

Eligible to go, and are

1. Mason Seagraves
2. Brody Marcum
3. Jade Pevley

Funding for Students and Adviser Attending FBLA National Conference

Students are responsible for their own registration, travel, lodging, and food, however, FBLA will help them raise funds.

Emily Whitworth will be attending as an adviser. The majority of adviser costs are covered by Perkins. She is not receiving a stipend or being paid for the days it takes to attend the National Conference (June 29 - July 2).

1. Fundraiser - Old KY Chocolates
2. Scholarship Application to National FBLA office
3. Board Request
4. Lodging - Mason and Brody will share rooms with each other, cutting their cost.
However, Jade is the only female going. IF another chapter has an additional sleeping spot in their room, our chapter may share rooms with another chapter.
