Ms. Hannah has taught at James E. Biggs for 4 years. During her time at Biggs, Ms. Hannah has exceeded expectations year after year. As a new teacher, Ms. Hannah quickly and voluntarily joined school committees. She navigated teaching during the pandemic with flexibility and grace. This school year, Ms. Hannah has taken on various leadership roles within the building, including joining the Believers Committee, a group designed to enhance the experience of children attending Biggs and appropriately implement positive behavioral interventions and supports. Ms. Hannah is beloved by her students and their families. She is dependable, hard-working, and positive. Ms. Hannah truly reflects an individual with a growth mindset. She is continually pushing herself to be the best she can be. She is an asset to James E. Biggs and makes a positive impact on the lives of the children in her classroom. A fellow colleague described Hannah as personified sunshine. 'Ms. Hannah brightens everyone's day at Biggs. She is an awesome teacher and always positive'.
