ENROLLMENT/ADMISSION CRITERIA

Newport Independent Schools shall ~~enroll/admit~~ pupils who reside out of the Newport School District based upon an application for ~~enrollment/admission~~ duly submitted to the Office of the Superintendent. The Superintendent shall have discretion to allow or deny ~~enrollment/admission~~ based upon criteria which include the analysis of the out-of-district pupil's past academic performance, as shown in transcripts to be provided by the applicant, the age of the child and the grade to be attended, the attendance history of the out-of-district pupil, and the availability of resources within the district to accommodate the existing student body as well as the out-of-district pupil.

APPEAL TO BOARD OF EDUCATION

If an applicant for admission, as set forth above, is denied by the Office of the Superintendent, said applicant may petition the Board of Education for a final decision on the question of ~~enrollment/admission~~.

BUSING NOT REQUIRED

Nothing within this policy shall be construed as requiring the Newport Board of Education to provide bus service outside the geographic parameters of the Newport Independent School District.
