Berea Middle School Board Report, August 15th

- Enrollment - 233 total
 - 6th grade - 70
 - 7th grade - 75
 - 8th grade - 88

- During July we had our 6th grade transition camp, our first ever 7th grade class meeting, and our first 8th grade class meeting. These meetings were intended to answer questions and to make a smooth transition for all. After the three meetings we had almost 2/3 total in attendance.

- Open House is 6-7 this Thursday for MS and HS students

- Teachers will be using the Google Classroom this school year for the online interactive piece of school and for parent communication

- Berea Middle Facebook page has been active since July 1st and we plan on keeping all communication up to date along with the One Call system for household phones

- Middle School Teacheres will be working on curriculum and assignemtns for students during these professional learning work days. We have access to our Co Op for teaching support along with team core content group meetings scheduled during these days.

- Much more info will be shared in the upcoming months... see attached important dates sheet that has a lot of 1st semester dates that has been passed on to staff and parents
