General Commentary

On Monday, Nov. 14th seven members of the executive staff traveled to Bowling Green High School to conduct the first training session for coaches in accordance with the agreed-upon order between KHSAA and BGISD.

The three-hour training session was led by Commissioner Julian Tackett, Assoc. Commissioner Butch Cope, Asst. Commissioners Joe Angolia, Darren Bilberry and Sarah Bridenbaugh, General Counsel Chad Collins and IT Director Rob Catron.

A total of 54 Bowling Green coaches and staff members attended the training session, which covered KHSAA Bylaws, policies and procedures, and the school subdomain.

A second training session will be scheduled after the first of the new year to include the remaining coaches and staff that were unable to attend on Nov. 14.
