

2022-23 Comprehensive Improvement Planning Timeline for Districts and Schools

When developed through a collaborative process involving multiple stakeholders and implemented with fidelity, the Comprehensive School Improvement Plan (CSIP) and the Comprehensive District Improvement Plan (CDIP) cultivate an environment that promotes student growth and achievement. Through this intentional process, schools and districts identify priority needs, strategically allocate resources, and monitor results to meet the needs of all students and close achievement gaps among identified subgroups.

The process and timeline for comprehensive school and district improvement planning are outlined in 703 KAR 5:225. Modifications have been made to the phases noted below to improve alignment and create efficient processes. Diagnostics in the Continuous Improvement Platform (CIP) have been identified by the following phases:
