Ms. Jordan Shields is one of a kind. Jordan Shields always comes to mind when we think of a person who embodies the definition of an amazing teacher. Her love for her students is evident in everything she does. Every morning you will see not only her current students but students who have had Ms. Shields in the past stopping by for hugs. They light up just at her presence. They know that she is there for them in and out of the classroom.

Mrs. Shields is a very structured teacher who provides a daily schedule that is both engaging and rigorous. Upon entering her room you will find all students on task and Mrs. Shields engaging with them by providing feedback and support. During the school day and outside of school Mrs. Shields is concerned about her students' growth. She works tirelessly to create lessons that provide students with appropriate, engaging, and high level work. She always wants to be the best for her students. She is always reaching out to her PLC, other staff, and administration about how to meet the needs of students.

Even veteran teachers appreciate and look up to Jordan Shields, her character, the way she builds relationships, the effort she puts into her teaching, and the support she gives others. These things set her apart as a leader. Every school needs a Jordan Shields in their building. We just happen to be blessed enough to have two (☺ this has to be said because she does nothing without her identical twin who is also in our building). Our building is a better place because of Ms. Jordan Shields.
