

NEW SCHOOLS NAMING PROPOSAL

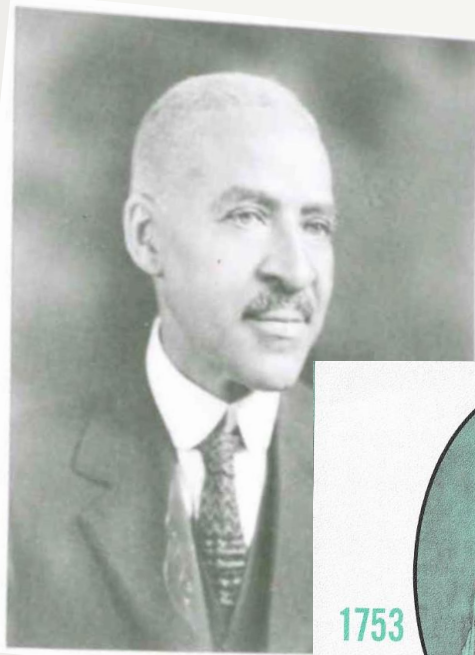

FEBRUARY 7, 2023

COMMUNITY INPUT

ONLINE SUBMISSIONS	More than 1,000 submissions were received online
COMMUNITY FORUMS	More than 40 people attended community naming forums

PERRY WHEATLEY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

- We want to maintain and foster the history of these two Black leaders
- William H. Perry, Sr. lived in West Louisville, graduated from Central High School, and was principal of Eastern and Western Schools in Louisville
- Phillis Wheatley was the second published African American poet and first published African American woman

DR. J. BLAINE HUDSON MIDDLE SCHOOL

- Grew up in West Louisville and became a leader in Louisville's African American community
- Graduate of Louisville Male High School
- Longtime dean of the University of Louisville College of Arts & Sciences
- Creator of Saturday Academy

ECHO TRAIL MIDDLE SCHOOL

- Located in the heart of The Parklands, the name Echo Trail fits well with its surroundings
- Community members overwhelmingly recommended Echo Trail Middle School as the name

QUESTIONS?

