A satellite map of the Newburg Area in Louisville, Kentucky. The map shows a mix of urban and suburban development, including residential neighborhoods, commercial areas, and industrial zones. Key landmarks and locations labeled on the map include Louisville International Airport to the west, Lynnview to the north, West Buechel to the northeast, GE Appliance Park to the east, Builders Surplus to the southeast, and Jefferson Mall to the south. Major roads like I-63 and I-75 are visible. A yellow rectangular box with the text "Newburg Area" is centered over the map.
