 - b. Currently at 42/59 students postsecondary ready with a strong opportunity to get over 80% by the end of the year.
 - c. Our school has improved at least half a point on the ACT year over year. We are still waiting for four student's individual scores.
 - d. Mr. Fitzgerald reported that Mr. Collins did a great job on after-prom. Mr. Meyers shared that Ms. Hoffman and Ms. Vonderhaar did a wonderful job on the prom as well.
- d. Public Comment
 - a. No public in attendance for comment.

Budget Report

- a. Council reviewed the budget report. No discussion.

Committee Report

- a. Special Education Report: Ms. Buschle filed a report on behalf of the special education department. Ms. Kohrs added that most students who are struggling will likely pull it out, though a few may not.

New Business

- a. Grading Policy Discussion
 - a. Mr. Meyers previously had shared the emails with feedback from the PLCs about what they wanted to do with the grading policy. Discussion about what portions of grading should be actual policy and what portions should be in the teacher handbook. Discussion about whether to keep the 20% "rule" with the midterm and final exams. Ms. Kohrs discussed both sides of the issue. There will be a first reading at the May meeting.
- b. Scheduling Update 2023-24

- a. Mr. Wolf reported on scheduling for the 2023-24 school year. Mr. Wolf discussed how students leaving campus has an impact on the master schedule. Dr. Wright explained why the administration is wanting to switch to a 6-period school day. Mr. Wolf explained the timeline of how the schedule will be rolled out to teachers and students.
- c. Board Report-Sharing of Information
 - a. Mr. Meyers shared the board report for informational purposes. No discussion.

Adjournment

Motion to adjourn made by Mr. Fitzgerald, second by Ms. Kohrs. No objections. Meeting adjourned at 4:29 PM.
