History/Background:

Green Dot is a nationally recognized strategy program focused on preventing Power-Based Personal Violence (Bullying, Dating Violence, Partner Violence, Sexual Harassment, and Stalking). This program was created at the University of Kentucky in 2006. The Green Dot Strategy is based around the belief that each one of us holds power as bystanders to actively prevent violence and shape our community norms. It is a comprehensive approach to violence prevention that capitalizes on empowering peers, changing the culture and its influence across all levels of our society. The sessions will be provided by Kimberly Reynolds, Region #11 Green Dot Educator and will be incorporated into our Advisor/Advisee time and/or health class.
