Perspective-shifting, life-changing, teacher-approved travel

EF helps teachers change their students' lives through educational travel. And frankly, EF does student travel better than anyone else.

Our secret sauce? A time-tested blend of product innovation, global expertise, and superhuman support.

When students travel on EF tours, they expand their knowledge of the world around them, discover more about themselves, grow more confident and independent, and understand new people, places, and cultures. And when educators lead these tours, they grow in countless ways, bringing back a new perspective to their own classroom.

Meet the magic makers

Say hi to your new besties, your Tour Consultant and EF Experience Specialist. Together, this dynamic duo makes up your very own EF Travel Team. Each one of these experts has a specialized skill set, but their overall goal is the same: making sure you get individualized support and have the absolute best tour ever. First, you'll be paired with your Tour Consultant. As an itinerary whiz and expert on your school district, they'll match you with your ideal tour and get students signed up. Then, you'll meet your EF Experience Specialist. They're dedicated to handling all the nitty-gritty logistics that make your tour a success (think passport assistance, rooming assignments, fundraising ideas, you name it). Plus, they look out for your personal and professional growth, connecting you with all of EF's incredible teacher benefits.
