II. Celebrations & Recognitions

- A. Celebrations: Admin was able to finish all one on one teacher meetings.
- B. KYA was a full experience for our KYA students. EHS had their first Governor Elect.

III. Public Comment

- A. Mr. Zoeller, girls soccer coach, discussed with the SBDM the assistant coach stipend. As it is set now, the head coach gets $5250. There is a $2500 stipend for assistant coaches which is currently split with Coach Pete, $2250 and Coach Parsons' $500. Coach Zoeller's request was for the SBDM to approve an additional stipend for this year to compensate Coach Parsons due to the difference in the delegation of the current stipend due to being unaware of the deadline for Coach's stipend requests and changes.
The SBDM council discussed this in detail with Chairman Ben Monnett. Will revisit at the next meeting.

IV. Monthly Agenda Items

- A. Discipline Data Review.
 1. Council reviewed the current Discipline Data
- B. ROTC
 1. The approval to move forward with the ROTC program plans here at EHS was approved at the November Board of Education meeting.
- C. Panther College and Timeline
 1. EIS currently has adopted the Pride Program to allow students to earn their diplomas in a non-traditional way. Students who participate in this program work on-line at their own pace and are able to meet requirements for graduation. Students in the program are not allowed to participate in any extracurricular activities but are able to walk at the graduation ceremony.

2. SMDM will discuss in the next few months Panther College and set specific qualifications for students to attend Panther College.
