Re: January 22nd Board of Education Meeting Staff Recognition: District Teachers of the Year

At our December meeting we recognized our School-Level Teachers of the Year. All of those teachers were invited to apply for the district-level honor for their grade band - elementary, middle, or high. A scoring committee of 5 individuals reviewed and rated the anonymous applications and have selected the following staff as our district teachers of the year!

Elementary District Teacher of the Year:

Melissa Pratt, Maryville Elementary School

Middle School District Teacher of the Year:

Jessica Talley, Mt. Washington Middle School

High School Teacher of the Year:

Adis Delgado, North Bullitt High School
