

Our Helmwood Student of the Month for February is Miss Eden Parker. Eden has attended Helmwood since she was in first grade. Throughout the years, she has exemplified what it means to be a Panther, but no one can tell you why she deserves this honor better than her peers. This is what they have to say...

"I think Eden is the best because she listens in class."

"She is a good friend always."

"She gets her homework done on time always, and she is a grade A+ example for others, and she gets good grades, too."

"Eden is a great student because she is very kind."

"She is a good friend because she is so nice and kind to people and she helps them out when they need help."

"Eden is the student of the month because she is kind, she is funny, and she is helpful."

"Eden Parker is very kind-hearted and follows the guidelines for success every day."

"Eden has a kind heart and cares for her friends and family."

"Eden is kind-hearted. She is the sweetest person I've ever met and she always follows the rules!"

"This is why Eden should be student of the month. She is always doing the right thing like following the guidelines for success."

"She keeps everyone on track and she is nice and she follows directions."

"She listens."

"Eden should be student of the month because she is kind, she stays out of trouble, and when she makes a mistake she always fixes it no matter what."

"She is respectful, she is responsible, and she is cooperative and she is her best always."

“Eden is a great friend. She’s super nice. She has amazing work and her handwriting is super neat.”

“Eden is nice and helpful to others and is always doing great in class.”

‘She is kind, loving, and good to all her friends and classmates. Also, she has a big heart.”

“I think Eden deserves to be student of the month because of her kindness and attitude.”

“Eden has a good heart. She accepts everyone for who they are. Sh’s nice to me and she’s my BFF!”

“Eden is the best student of the month because of her kind, loving soul. She is one of the kindest, most loving people ever to live. She puts her friends and family before herself which is amazing.”

Now you can tell what makes this student so special! Congratulations, Eden Parker!!
