Academics

Student of the Month academic theme this month is Writing.

Writing Stamina Initiative: School-Wide Stop and Write every Friday 8-8:30am

- Positive feedback! Many expressed how good they felt about the start of their day and how excited they were to have time set aside to write.
- Several classes have surpassed expectations for how long they could sustain writing. All classrooms are tracking writing stamina with a poster outside their classroom.

January ERD every Wednesday

- 1/3/24 Eureka PD Day
- 1/10/24 SEL Resources and discuss Literacy Night
- 1/17/24 Cancelled due to parent conferences
- 1/24/24 Safety Audit Review
- 1/31/24 PLC: EasyCBM Data Analysis

MTSS

- We had our 2nd round of MTSS meetings, Jan 29-Feb 2. We have tightened up the Tier 2 and Tier 3 referral process by creating specific goals for each student needing services.
- MTSS Dates for the rest of the year: week of March 18th and week of May 13th

Scholastic Writing Coaching

- Coaching Visit: January 22 and 24
 - Individual goals for each teacher 3rd-5th
- Scholastic Leadership Walk: January 23

 - K-2 Reading Strategies: Lips the Fish, Stretchy Snake, Chunky Monkey
 - 3-5 Thinking Strategies: Activating Schema, Visualizing, Questioning

- GES Family Olympics (100+ participants)
 - GES collaborated with Skool Aid and 21st Century to organize this wonderful event.
 - Families worked together to compete in teambuilding activities with an Olympic theme

- 5th Grade Transition-Departmentalized
 - Ms. Tully will be teaching math and Ms. Land will be teaching ELA (writing and reading).
 - This will help students adjust to BMS class transitions next year.

KSA (KY Summative Assessment) Prep Plan

- Friday Stop and Write Initiative to improve writing stamina
- 5th Grade On-Demand Boot Camp
- 3rd-5th Bi-weekly KSA practice tests
- Admin and teacher organize individual student meetings to review test schools and strategies
- Plan KSA theme and produce teacher video
- End of the Year Celebration

Attendance

There is a school-wide February Attendance Challenge. At the end of the month, the primary class and the intermediate class with the highest attendance percentage will win a party. Individual students will also be recognized for smaller prizes, such as lunch with Ms. Craig and/or Ms. Antony.

Social Emotional: Character Strong

- At the end of January, teacher nominated students were recognized for our January SEL character trait with snacks, games, and a video. February’s character trait is Honesty.
- Teachers will be focus on teaching Character Strong: Honesty lessons will be done during morning meetings. Ms. Craig and Ms. Antony will reinforce this learning during her monthly SEL lesson.
- Ms. Sharp sent teachers the winter SEL Universal Screener to fill out, due February 9th.
- The MTSS Tier 2 team will be analyzing the data and creating plans and/or adjusting plans as needed for students to receive the appropriate interventions.
- Ms. Craig shared Tier 1 behavior strategies/language with teachers at our Jan 10th ERD. These strategies were from the Responsibility-Centered Discipline training that she attended in November.

Behavior

Character Strong lessons and interventions continue to significantly and positively affect school-wide behaviors. Data shows improvement in Tier 2 and Tier 3 Character Strong interventions (Behavior Charts, Tally systems, SEL group goals, etc.).
