History/Background: The National Honor Society (NHS) is an organization in the United States that recognizes outstanding high school students. It was established in 1921 by the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NAASP) and has since grown to include chapters in all 50 states, as well as in other countries. The NHS recognizes students who excel in scholarship, leadership, service, and character, and it encourages them to continue their exemplary efforts. Membership in the NHS is considered a prestigious honor and provides opportunities for students to engage in community service, leadership development, and academic enrichment activities.

1. Recommended Action: Grant permission for Prestonsburg High School National Honor Society students to travel to the Biltmore Mansion on Saturday, April 27th, 2024 for academic enrichment activities.
