

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
DAYTON INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS
AND
BOONE COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT
REGARDING THE IGNITE INSTITUTE

Scope and Term

Boone County School District (hereinafter “BC”) and Dayton Independent Schools adopt this Memorandum of Understanding (hereinafter “MOU”) setting forth their respective roles regarding the Ignite Institute (hereinafter “Ignite”), which is a regional high school at the Roebling Innovation Center in Boone County, Kentucky which will provide regional programs as described herein.

This MOU is effective upon the mutual approval of the respective Boards of Education and subject to the Kentucky Department of Education (hereinafter “KDE”) approval of those aspects of it which by law may require their approval.

This MOU shall continue in effect until either party notifies the other that it desires to terminate its participation in Ignite, but only after the completion of the 2020-21 school year, and by giving written notice one (1) full school year prior to its termination process.

This MOU may only be revised or amended upon mutual approval of the Boards of Education of each district.

Ignite is a BC high school which will provide regional programs as follows: Biomedical, Computer Science, Engineering, Education, Design, Pre-Nursing. In order for Regional School District’s students to attend Ignite, Dayton High School must approve Attachment A for graduation requirements, and if needed the appropriate SBDM for each student within the Dayton Independent School District must also approve.

BC retains authority and responsibility to assure compliance of the school in all requirements of law and KDE. The parties agree to assure that their policies allow for the implementation of the programs listed above.

Finance

BC is responsible for the ownership, ongoing maintenance and operational aspects of Ignite, such as custodial, food service, physical plant operation, IT support and the like.

Food services at Ignite will be self-supporting.

Transportation costs of its students will be provided by Dayton Independent Schools. BC will cover the cost of buses used during the school day for educational field trip purposes. Ignite will follow BC procedures for field trips.

The BC school calendar will be followed.

Students who have an IEP and/or 504 plans will be serviced by staff at Ignite as outlined in the IEP / 504 plan and as coordinated between the BC and the Dayton Independent Schools Special Education Director.

- a. Special Education services OT, PT, Speech, etc. will be provided by the Regional School District as required.
- b. The Regional School District will be responsible for the costs of any special education due process or legal fees.

The foregoing shall be subject to KDE subsequent determination with the consideration of the Regional School District being responsible for its own students.

English Language Learners will be serviced by staff at Ignite as outlined in the PSP plan and as coordinated between BC the Dayton Independent Schools English Learners Coordinators. This is also true for Gifted and Talented services.

For the 2024-25 school year, the Regional District agrees to send the guaranteed base SEEK per student upon enrollment at Ignite. A student who has been accepted and wishes to continue in the program may finish the program unless they do not meet the academic and behavioral guidelines. There is a maximum number of one hundred out of district students that will be allowed to attend Ignite when at full capacity. After the first day of school should a student return to their home school, the regional school will be responsible for a pro-rated amount based on the number of days attended for the year (for example, a student returns at Winter Break the pro-rated amount would be $2,000 for one half of the school year).

Regional schools will have liability insurance that covers students while in any Work-Based Learning experiences while at Ignite.

Curriculum

Curriculum decisions and structure shall be decided by the Ignite administrative team and will include recommendations from all stakeholders.

Code of Conduct

Ignite will have its own Code of Conduct that will be used for discipline of Ignite students, which shall incorporate the applicable Code of Conduct of the Dayton Independent Schools for more serious offenses. The Ignite Code of Conduct must be presented and approved by each Board of Education.
