

MARION COUNTY
Public Schools

Superintendent's Report
Wednesday, June 5

Graduation

Hugh C. Spalding Academy held its graduation on Friday, May 24 and Marion County High School celebrated its graduates on Saturday, May 25.

Facilities

Marion County Middle School is in the process of receiving new windows.

Peak Moments

Mollie Medley (Glasscock Elementary) and Lisa Minor (Marion County Knight Academy) were named the MCPS Student Ambassadors Teachers of the Year .

Peak Moments

Marion County Middle School students raised $443.75 through a “Penny War” which was donated to the Marion County Animal Shelter.

Citizens National Bank helped carry in and count the coins.

Student Success

Hardin

Lanham

Hickey

Students from the MC Area Technology Center recently competed in the SkillsUSA state competition

Logan Hardin- Welding Sculpture 1st place

PJ Lanham- Technical Drafting 1st place

Joseph Hickey- Technical Drafting 3rd place

Logan Hardin and PJ Lanham will go to the National Competition in Atlanta in late June

Student Success

Students in Mr. Sweet's agriculture class at MCHS revamped the landscaping around the central office.

Student Success

The MCHS girls track team recently competed at the state competition:

- Grace Mattingly, 100 meter hurdles, 11th in state
- Karly Spalding, 1600 meter hurdles, 10th in state (and school record holder in this event)
- Jenna Bland, Dashiah Francisco, Tahlia Hall, Makenzie Greene, 4x200 meter relay, 22nd in state

Summer Opportunities

The MCPS summer camps are underway.

Among the camps is the Life Skills camp at Marion County High School, which covers skills such as sewing, CPR, and automotive repair.

Summer Feeding

The Summer Feeding program is operating at summer camps and Marion County Knight Academy is the daily meal pick-up site.

Starting June 12, the district will distribute bulk meal packages once per week.

Staff Success

Feeding Bodies. Fueling Minds.™

MCPS School Nutrition Director Jennifer Wheeler was recently elected as the KY School Nutrition Association Vice President.

