We are wanting to update our curriculum to the updated version. This new version will provide updated research based strategies and materials, as well as new posters, "tools" for students to use while regulating emotions, and offer more visual support for staff and students. Our staff expressed a desire to teach the zones curriculum throughout the year instead of a unit-like plan, so this resource will also provide a curriculum map and pacing suggestions. Please see the link for more information. https://zonesofregulation.com/digital-curriculum/	Notification was placed on the school website for review on April 22nd.
