C. PHS Principal's Report

Principal Brandon Blackburn shared with a brief recap of activities of both academic and athletic achievements and what is happening to plan for the upcoming school year.

D. District Administrator Reports

Instructional Supervisor Kim Clevinger shared information about the district-wide Flex PD included some of our teachers and staff conducting many of the PD sessions. The response by faculty and staff has been overwhelmingly positive. She discussed SBDM training has been completed and looking forward to the upcoming Pikeville Bookmobile. Also, she mentioned the work and communication that our FRYSC and administrations teams have completed for the upcoming school year.

Director of District Programs Taffie Wells shared information about the KSA reading and math proficient/distinguished percentages that will be on the district website per KDE guidelines. She also mentioned the upcoming KAGAN training that will be rolled out throughout the district and upcoming assessment dates.

Director of Special Education Ashla Vanhooose shared updates with the special education department and preschool. Several trainings have taken place, such as Autism and Dyslexia training which were both very beneficial to the staff. Preschool acceptance letters have been sent out.

Frosty Davis, Director of Pupil Personnel provided an update on home visits and how great our district is. When he speaks to new families they are looking to purchase a house in the city limits because they want their kids to go to school here. He has also been overseeing the new mulch project that has been put down on the elementary school playgrounds.

Neil Arnett, District Technology Coordinator, presented how well the Digital Promise event had gone at BLHS with several of our teachers presenting and participating. What a great partnership it's been for deeper learning strategies and to think outside the box. He also said that we will see several security updates coming in August.
