Fall 2023 to Fall 2024 Comparison Summary - Grades K-5

- By the NWEA definition of growth, we are starting in a stronger position this year for Reading than we started in the Fall of 2023.
- While we showed positive growth in the area of math, we are at a lower starting point than the previous year.
- We will be closely watching student growth from the Fall to Winter Assessment, the growth from the Winter to Spring Assessment, and the total growth over the course of the year shown in the Fall to Spring assessment.
