BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

Due to an increase in students that require Specially Designed Instruction (SDI) (placed per federal and state regulations) and per state requirements under caseload management (707 KAR 1:350- Placement Decisions) there is a requirement to meet a maximum number of students per caseload.

SUMMARY OF MAJOR ELEMENTS:

Due to an increase in students that require Specially Designed Instruction (SDI)/special education services there is a requirement to add additional staff to support caseload requirement. This will require an additional teacher with LBD certification at Northside Elementary and Simmons Elementary. The projected cost will be based on the certified teacher's level of certification and years of experience (zero years and rank starting at $32,143 and top being $79,135.)
