A three-time letterman, Cooper led Corydon HS to appearances in the 1928 and 1929 state tournament, advancing to the semifinals in 1929. Reported to have scored more than 500 points during the 1928-29 season, despite playing in an era when most teams didn't score that many points in a season. Named All-State by the Madisonville Messenger in 1929. Cited as one of the pioneers of the basketball "jump shot" according to the book Big Leagues: Professional Baseball, Football and Basketball in National Memory. Played at Hopkinsville HS as a senior, winning a 4th District championship, before moving on to the University of Missouri. Earned three letters in basketball for the Tigers and was the leading scorer in the Big Six Conference and a unanimous 1st Team All-Conference in 1932. Also lettered in football (1932) and track (1933 and 1934) at Missouri. In the NCAA rule book, Cooper is cited as the first player to popularize the jump shot (1932-34). Graduated with a PhD in Education from Missouri in 1946 and went on to a decorated career in education. Wrote over 20 books in his teaching career, including The Theory and Science of Basketball in 1969. Was inducted into the Missouri Athletic Hall of Fame in 1992.

Mr. Cowden took over the girls and boys Golf program in the spring of 1971 and serves as head coach to this day (48 seasons and counting)- though the coaching position is now shared with his daughter, Tori, as the head girls varsity coach. While at HCHS he also coached tennis, and drove after school weekend field trips. He often volunteers his time to transport students to various events. In 1974 he initiated the first modern Girls Basketball program at HCHS. In his 12 years as the girls' basketball coach his teams won five District 11 tournaments (with six district runner-up finishes) and recorded one Region 3 runner-up finish. His final record was 175 wins and 144 "Not So Well". He resigned from coaching Basketball in 1986, but kept the golf position and became Athletic Director, serving in that capacity for 19 years. As Athletic Director he also served on the 3rd Region Policy Board for eight years (4 years as president) and the KHSAA Golf Committee for 11 years.

Bill Jenkins, without a doubt, is one of the best high school football players to ever play in Kentucky. He played about every position and played it well. He excelled, however, at quarterback. Bill had his choice of scholarships when graduating from high school. Every school in the SEC recruited him, but he chose to stay in the state and signed to play under Blanton Collier at the University of Kentucky. He finished an outstanding career under Charlie Bradshaw. This should tell you something about Bill Jenkins. Great all-around athlete in high school. All-state football and basketball.
