- d. Good News Report: The students enjoyed trick-or-treat activities with preschool visiting kindergarten classrooms and kindergarten students visiting classes at Elizabethtown High School. On November 14th, students and many of their family members joined us to enjoy our annual Thanksgiving lunch. We appreciate the Dow Corning and Metalsa volunteers helping our cafeteria staff prepare and serve this wonderful meal. On Veterans Day, kindergarten students were led in the pledge by Mr. Doug Frederick, an EIS staff member and former Panther Academy staff member. He also shared information about his service in the military. Several guests came to visit classrooms and some visited classrooms virtually to share information about their service in the military. Mrs. Kuhn shared that on November 8th the Kentucky Department of School Safety visited Panther Academy to conduct a safety audit.
