

MARION COUNTY
Public Schools

Superintendent's Report
Thursday, January 9

Construction Updates - GES

Glasscock Elementary
has a new awning in front of the school.

Student Success

Hugh C. Spalding
Academy had 16
students graduate in December.

Peak Moments

Schools across the district held Christmas-themed activities prior to the winter break.

Activities at Lebanon Elementary included a PJ day and a singalong assembly organized by the school's Related Arts teachers.

Athletics

Lebanon Middle School P.E. teacher Buck Robinson was recently named the new MCHS baseball coach.

Preschool

Lebanon Elementary: 20

Glasscock Elementary: 20

Calvary Elementary: 20

West Marion Elementary: 39

Total: 99

Dolly Parton Imagination Library:

Active: 641

Graduated: 1379

District Update

Rep. Sarge Pollock and representatives from Jobs for America's Graduates (JAG) visited MCPS recently to discuss working with the district to potentially implement the JAG program.

SCHOOL BOARD RECOGNITION MONTH

#LOVEKYSCHOOLBOARDS

