HISTORY/BACKGROUND:

The Kentucky High School Association (KHSAA) recently approved the adaption of Boys Volleyball as a sanctioned sport in 2024-25. This new sport will provide an opportunity for students to participate in a regular season and compete for a regional and state championship. The additional stipends are the same as Girls Volleyball and would align with our Community Based Accountability System (CBAS) Student, Family and Community Engagement Pillar that measures opportunities provided to students to participate in extra-curricular activities.

FISCAL/BUDGETARY IMPACT:

Up to $20,409 per year paid from general fund.

RECOMMENDATION:

Approval Addition of Boys High School Volleyball Head Coach in the amount of $3,928, a Boys Assistant High School Coach in the amount of $1,645 and a Level I position in the amount of $1,230.
