

International Thespian Festival 2025

“Sent A Troupe” Grant will cover up to $10,000 in registration costs for students, teachers, and chaperones to attend.

When: June 22 - 27, 2025

Where: Indiana University Bloomington

Summary:

- ITF is the premier experience for Thespians – students inducted into the national theatre honorary called the International Thespian Society. ITF celebrates outstanding student work and elevates the teachers who create those opportunities to learn and excel.
- ITF showcases dozens of student performances, including full-length main stage productions and one-acts, on a national stage. ITF is home to the annual Thespy Awards program, where more than 1,500 students compete for superior honors and Thespy Awards, the highest achievement in school theatre. Student technicians compete in the BACKstage Challenge. Students can take workshops on every aspect of theatre and participate in talkback sessions with Broadway and theatre industry professionals.
