STUDENT OF THE MONTH

PATRICK WITTMAN

PANTHER ACADEMY

Patrick will always follow the rules and is a leader by modeling for others what is expected! He always listens and follows directions the first time asked and does his very best on everything asked of him.

Patrick always uses his manners. He is respectful to his teachers and other students.

Patrick is cooperative and flexible so he can be paired up with any student and would work with them as if they were his best friend. Patrick gets along with others in his group at all times.

Patrick cares for others. Patrick shows kindness by being a good friend. He always gets along with his buddies and helps others in need.

Mrs. Lee also shared that Patrick always gives his best! He's funny, kind, respectful and patient with others. He loves learning and loves being at school. He is such a joy to have in class!

When asked about what she liked about school, he said he really likes to play outside, do centers and stations and math.

Vyktor,

*Congrats on being named
Morningside Elementary's
Student of the Month!*

#PantherPride

MORNINGSIDE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

We are proud to recognize Vyktor Bowen as our Student of the Month for March! Vyktor has shown incredible dedication and growth in both their academic work and personal behavior.

In the classroom, Vyktor is always eager to participate, whether it's answering questions, sharing ideas, or working on group projects. His focus and hard work have led to great success in all subjects, and he continues to challenge himself to do his best.

Beyond academics, Vyktor is a positive role model for his classmates. He demonstrates respect, kindness, and teamwork in every situation. He truly leads by example everyday and makes our classroom a better place for everyone.

We are so proud of all the effort and care Vyktor puts into everything he does. We can't wait to see all of the amazing things you'll continue to accomplish!

Congratulations, Vyktor, on being our Student of the Month! Keep up the excellent work!

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

ELIZABETHTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

ISABELLA YATES

Bella is a senior at EHS. She has played soccer for four years and was captain of the soccer team her senior year. She has been a member of the pep club, beta club, and student council. Bella was also the Junior class president.

She is an outstanding student who is a participant in Panther College. Bella will be graduating this year with two Associates Degrees. She has earned an Associates in Art and an Associates in Science. While attending ECTC, Bella has earned 74 credit hours. Bella will be attending the nursing program at the University of Louisville. She currently works alongside CNA's in a service program at the Hospital. She has accepted a job at the hospital this summer as a PRN.

Here are some comments from her teachers:

Rob Zoeller: Bella is an outstanding young lady who is a leader on and off the field. Bella cares about the people around her and always gives her best effort. Bella loves being a Panther and makes our school better daily.

Chloe Blakeman: Bella Yates is an outstanding student at Panther College. She consistently puts in effort and skillfully balances her time between school and her other responsibilities. She is very dedicated, and I have no doubts about her future success in nursing school.

Travis Thompson: Bella was one of my strongest students in AP World History, whether it was a regular assignment or a group project, she always went above and beyond to exceed expectations. She has an amazing personality, compassion for others, and one of the best work ethics I've seen in my career. Bella has truly exemplified "Panther Pride" during her tenure at Elizabethtown High School, and she is very deserving of this honor.

EHS is proud to recognize Bella Yates as the March Student of the Month.

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

JAMEL TAYLOR

Jamel,

Congrats on being named TK
Stone Middle School's
Student of the Month!

#PantherPride

T.K. STONE MIDDLE SCHOOL

Jamel Taylor is a great student at T. K. Stone. He is kind and hardworking and a great participant in class. He is a member of the archery team, Sources of Strength and Band. His favorite class is Mr. Price's Science class because he has lots of fun learning and Mr. Price is great about helping.

Jamel enjoys T. K. Stone because of all of the great students and teachers. He would love to attend the University of Kentucky and would possibly like to become a counselor.

Jamel's role models are his mom and dad because they are very caring and treat everyone equally. They always make sure he has everything he needs.

Jamel Taylor is a quiet kid who shows his strengths through his work. He is a wonderful student who is not afraid to speak up when confused, and will never fail to ask questions. He is also a very good participant when it comes to raising hands in class, and answering questions. Overall, I love having him in my class! - Ms. Bradley

Jamel is a wonderful student. He is thoughtful and brings depth to group discussions. He is unafraid of brainstorming and throwing out ideas even if they may be wrong, because he knows that it will lead to more discussion and possibly a different viewpoint that leads to a learning breakthrough for himself and others. - Mr. Price

Jamel is a very talented young man who is a great clarinetist. He works hard and always gives his best effort. He is very kind and is a great student to have in class. - Mr. Smith

ALEC HART

Alec,

Congrats on being named
Helmwood Height Elementary
School's Student of the Month!

HELMWOOD HEIGHTS ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Dear Alec,

I am so delighted that you have been chosen as the Student of the Month for Helmwood Heights Elementary School! This is a remarkable accomplishment, and it brings me great joy to acknowledge your hard work and exemplary character.

Your enthusiasm for learning is evident in every aspect of your school life. In our English Language Arts class, your writing showcases a vivid imagination and meticulous attention to detail. You consistently approach each assignment with a clear vision, and your dedication to refining your work is truly commendable. Your ability to embrace feedback and strive for excellence sets a positive example for your peers.

Although I don't teach your math class, your math teacher frequently praises your exceptional abilities in the subject. Your proficiency in mathematics, coupled with your passion for writing, highlights your diverse academic talents.

Beyond academics, your active participation in basketball, football, and baseball demonstrates your commitment to teamwork and personal growth. You bring the same level of dedication and enthusiasm to the field as you do to the classroom, inspiring those around you.

Your leadership qualities are evident in both the classroom and on the field. You are well-liked by your classmates, and your approachable nature fosters a supportive and inclusive environment. While you may appear shy at first, those who take the time to know you quickly recognize your amazing personality and the joy you bring to those around you.

Alec, students like you are the reason I am passionate about teaching. Your resilience, enthusiasm, and integrity enrich our school community. Congratulations on this well-deserved recognition! I am excited to see all the incredible things you will continue to achieve.

Warm Regards,

Peggy Whitmer
