STUDENT OF THE MONTH

KENDALYNN
THOMPSON

Kendalynn,

Congrats on being named
Panther Academy's Student of the Month!

#PantherPride

PANTHER ACADEMY

Kendalynn is a very responsible student. She is trustworthy, very dependable, and will do things on her own without having to be asked or reminded. She completes her work on time and returns it to school in a timely manner.

Kendalynn is very respectful. She is always very polite when talking to a friend or an adult. She waits patiently for her turn, raises her hand, and uses her manners. She always has kind words to say.

Kendalynn works cooperatively with every student and teacher. When we participate in activities that require partners, she is willing to work with anyone that she is partnered with, always takes turns and shares.

Kendalynn is kind to everyone. She includes everyone and speaks only kind words to classmates and teachers.

Kendalynn is a wonderful student and an excellent role model for her classmates! She is always making good choices, follows the rules and she gives everything 100%. She is an excellent role model of someone who displays Panther Academy's Guidelines for Success. I have loved watching Kendalynn grow as a student this year! She has a very bright future ahead of her!

When asked about what she liked about school, she said she loves to read!

ARIA JONES

Aria,

Congrats on being named
Morningside Elementary's
Student of the Month!

#PantherPride

MORNINGSIDE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

We are excited to announce that Aria Jones is our Student of the Month! Aria has shown an incredible attitude towards our MES Guidelines for Success- being respectful, responsible, cooperative, and always doing her best in everything she does.

Respectful:

Aria is always polite to classmates and teachers. She listens carefully, shows kindness to others, and follows classroom rules. Her respectful behavior helps make our class a positive and welcoming place for everyone.

Responsible:

Aria takes responsibility for her work and actions. Whether it's completing assignments on time or cleaning up after an activity, she always makes sure her tasks are done well and with care.

Cooperative:

Working with others is a strength of Aria's. She works well in groups, shares ideas, and encourages friends to do their best. Aria is always ready to help classmates and contribute to team projects. She has a fun, infectious personality that students and teachers alike enjoy being around.

Always Doing Her Best:

What really stands out about Aria is that she always puts in her best effort. Whether it's a difficult math problem, a new reading assignment, or an art project, Aria never gives up and strives to improve every day.

We are so proud of all the hard work and positive qualities Aria brings to our classroom daily. Keep up the amazing work, Aria! You are a wonderful role model for everyone!

APRIL

ELIZABETHTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

Zander is a senior at EHS. He is a participant in the Teaching and Learning Pathway. Through the teaching and learning pathway, Zander has worked in a few different positions within the district. 1st semester, Zander worked as an assistant at Panther Academy. Currently, Zander works as a first grade assistant at MorningSide Elementary. Zander plans to attend WKU and major in History/Social Studies. He would like to become a High School History Teacher.

Here are some comments from his teachers:

Mrs. Bell: Zander is a wonderful student and young man. He worked at Panther Academy in the fall and was an asset to the classroom. This spring he works at Morningside and Mrs. Goodman shared this, "Zander who works in Cates' room each day. Today we did not have a sub in there so we had different adults going in during each planning period. I was in there for a short time and was reading what to do in the lesson. He asked if I wanted him to do that portion of the lesson. It was obvious he was familiar with the routines and he did a great job of leading the class. He even had students exchange papers and check each other's work. I was impressed with the initiative he took!"

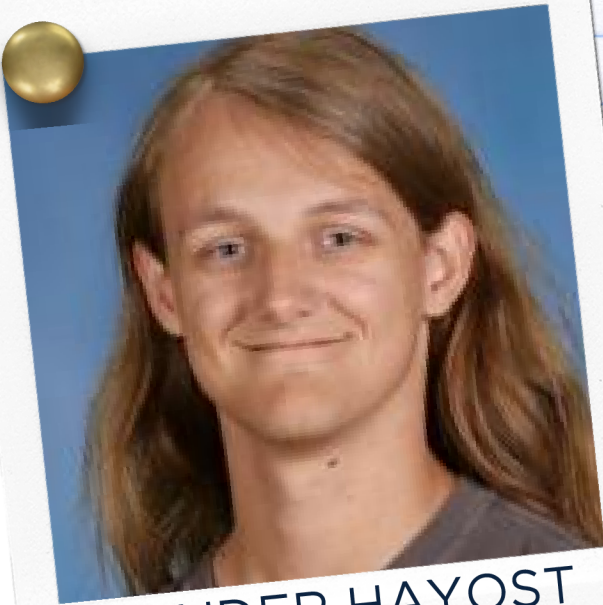

Chloe Blakeman: Congratulations, Zander! Your hard work and dedication to your education truly shine, from your acceptance into WKU's education program to your efforts at Panther Academy. You're on a fantastic path, and I am confident that you will be an amazing history teacher. Keep up the great work!

Jan LaPerle: Zander is enthusiastic about his English work. He is engaged and responds thoughtfully to classroom discussions. He is a strong supporter of his peers and he really cares about the work he is doing in the classroom (as a future teacher). I am excited to see what Zander will do in the future; he's a great student!

Lisa Lenberger: Congratulations to Zander Hayost! Zander is a student in EDU 250 and 260 through WKU as part of his journey to become a teacher, showcasing his dedication and hard work. He is always focused and consistently puts forth his best effort in everything he does. Zander is not only a leader in the classroom but also a kind and supportive friend to his peers. His positive attitude and strong work ethic inspire those around him. He will be an amazing teacher one day! Keep up the amazing work, Zander!

EHS is proud to recognize Zander Hayost as the April Student of the Month.

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

CORA DIAMOND

Cora,

Congrats on being named TK
Stone Middle School's
Student of the Month!

#PantherPride

T.K. STONE MIDDLE SCHOOL

Cora Diamond is a perfect example of what a TK. Panther should be. She is kind and motivated and a wonderful student. Cora is involved in competitive cheer at CKA, where she is in her first year as a flier. She loves being a flier because she has very competitive teammates who make her feel really good about herself.

Cora is also a member of student Council, which she enjoys because she loves being around Ms. Fowler and being with friends. She is also a Sources of Strength ambassador for TKS.

Cora has two younger sisters who she enjoys hanging out with. Her favorite class is art. In fact that is what she does in her free time. She prefers sketching because there is always a chance to revise.

Cora is interested in a couple possible careers- being a Lawyer or a Writer. She sometimes makes home newspapers titles, "Being at home with the Diamond Family." She also has interest in the possibility of becoming a fashion designer.

Cora's role model is her mom because she cares for her and her sisters and is not going to let anything happen to them.

Ms. Fowler said, Cora is a delight. Her positive attitude is my favorite thing about her. She comes to school each day, eager to work hard and learn new things. She cares deeply for her friends and teachers and shows kindness all around. It is an absolute pleasure to be her teacher.

Ms. Kast said, Cora is a fantastic student. She loves to learn and she learns quickly. She is a great listener. She comes to school each day ready to do her best.

Cora is also a wonderful person. She treats adults and other students with respect and kindness. I count it a privilege to be her Honors ELA teacher.

Cora is a kind and creative student who always goes the extra mile. She takes great pride in her artwork, and is constantly asking how she can grow and improve. She is very reliable and eager to learn each and every day, helping to facilitate a positive classroom environment. It has been a blessing to teach her this year, and I am excited to see her continue to grow academically, as a leader, and as an artist. - Ms. Summers

Cora is an absolute joy to have in class! Her enthusiasm is contagious and she's always curious and wanting to learn more! She comes to class ready to learn and is always willing to help others. -Mrs. Weaver

Cora is a great student and a pleasure to have in class. Her work effort and positive attitude are on display every day when she comes into the room. She always has a smile on her face, is courteous, and ready to help out when needed. I have truly enjoyed having her as a student this year. - Mr. Stewart

ELLEN WATT

Ellen,

Congrats on being named
Helmwood Height Elementary
School's Student of the Month!

#PantherPride

HELMWOOD HEIGHTS ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Ellen is a great example of a model student. She is a hard worker and a quiet leader. She is a role model for her peers, showing that leadership isn't always about being the loudest voice, but about consistent dedication and positive influence. She shows up every day with a smile on her face and goes above expectations to ensure everyone around her has what they need. Her commitment to excellence is inspiring!

-Jordan Whitaker 3rd grade teacher

Ellen is a beautiful little girl inside and out. She loves school and all of her peers! She is always quick to help a friend in need and encourages them along the way. She sets a great example and is very responsible and respectful no matter the task at hand! You can always depend on Ellen to do what's right with a kind and humble spirit.

-Victoria McNeil 2nd grade teacher

Ellen is a shining role model and is very deserving of this high honor! Though she doesn't seek the spotlight, she leads daily by her humble example. She values the benefits of being a strong listener and observer of the world around, and applies the knowledge she gains to be successful both in and out of the classroom. She is sensitive to the needs of others and always willing to lend a help hand. She is highly intrinsically motivated and exhibits a high level of perseverance in challenging situations. I am so proud of her work ethic and determination. I feel so blessed to have the opportunity to work with her young, eager mind!

-Renee Lackey, GT Coordinator/Resource Teacher K-5

As Ellen's art teacher, I've had the joy of watching her grow from first through third grade, and it has truly been a privilege. Ellen is one of the kindest and sweetest students I've ever had the pleasure of teaching. She is a wonderful friend to her classmates, always showing compassion, encouragement, and a willingness to stand up for others. Ellen consistently makes thoughtful choices, listens attentively, and shows respect to both her peers and teachers.

What makes Ellen shine even more is her creativity and her love for learning. She takes what she's taught and runs with it—always going above and beyond to produce meaningful, high-quality work. Ellen is a positive influence in our classroom, bringing joy, curiosity, and a beautiful spirit to everything she does.

I'm so proud of Ellen and all that she brings to our school. She is incredibly deserving of this honor!
