

Information Technology Director Rob Catron

Topic

Sports Report

Sports Report

Sport

Winter/Spring Esports

Positive Developments and Highlights

We are excited to announce that Kentucky has two nominations for the 2025 PlayVS Awards. PlayVS is the official Esports Partner of the KHSAA.

DuPont Manual's Crimson Tide has been nominated for national team of the year in the competitive multiplayer Nintendo Switch title Splatoon 3, and Fayette County Public Schools is up for the national Esports school district of the year.

Fayette County is up against districts from Texas, Georgia, New Mexico, and Florida.

Please note you may vote on each category once a day until voting closes on May 16th.

Cast your vote using the following link:

<https://playvs.com/playvs-awards>

Make sure to tune in at twitch.tv/playvs on June 5th & 6th for the PlayVS Cup Finals.

Championship
Update/Review

The 2025 Operation UNITE Spring Esports State Championships were held Thursday, May 1 at the Cornerstone on the University of Kentucky's Campus with seven new state championships crowned. We had three new schools advance to this year - Seneca, Pulaski County and Campbellsville. Shelby County took the title this season in Mario Kart. Trinity (Lou.) won the Super Smash Bros. Championship. In our third NBA 2K Championship, Phoenix Guffey from Wayne County defeated two time winner Aiden Dailey for the win. duPont Manual's Ramyu Force prevailed again in League of Legends. Manual returned once again as the champion in Splatoon 3 as well. Jackson Burgess from Somerset took the Madden NFL 25 State Title. Bowling Green's Purple Reign won the Rocket League Title. Attendance was down a bit - possibly attributed to having the Championship on Derby Week.