

Issue Paper

DATE:

July 25, 2025

AGENDA ITEM (ACTION ITEM):

Receive the 2025-26 KCS D Instructional Resources

APPLICABLE BOARD POLICY:

01.1 Legal Status of the Board

HISTORY/BACKGROUND:

KRS 160.345 requires the superintendent of the district to determine curriculum, instructional resources, and textbooks after consulting with the local board of education, the school principal, the school council, and after a reasonable review period for stakeholders in accordance with the local board of education policy. The instructional resource list represents large scale resources and/or textbooks that each principal submitted for our team to review. Teachers continue to have the professional autonomy to determine necessary resources/materials such as articles, video clips, websites, etc. that align to grade level standards. It is the expectation that the KCS D Instructional Statement and Board Policies/Procedures guide the professional decision making for each staff member.

FISCAL/BUDGETARY IMPACT:

None

SEB	Other	Elementary, Middle, High	Zones of Regulation	Print Resources	The Zones of Regulation is the original framework and curriculum (Kuypers, 2011) that develops awareness of feelings, energy and alertness levels while exploring a variety of tools and strategies for regulation, prosocial skills, self-care, and overall wellness. This curriculum provides us an easy way to think and talk about how we feel on the inside and sort these feelings into four colored Zones, all of which are expected in life. Once we understand our feelings and zones, we can learn to use tools/strategies to manage our different Zones in order to meet goals like doing schoolwork or other tasks, managing big feelings, and healthy relationships with others. The simple, common language and visual structure of The Zones of Regulation helps make the complex skill of regulation more concrete for learners and those who support them.
